The McConnell-Cahan Suit Dropped Disastrous Fire at Lockeport.

WEYMOUTH.

Weymouth Bridge, March 26 .- Weymouth suffered a heavy loss Tuesday when C. Burrill & Co.'s fine wholesal and retail establishment was wiped out by fire. The alarm of fire was given shortly before eight o'clock, but the flames had then got such headway that it was impossible to enter the building. Henry E. Oakes' old and new houses were also burned. The store of G. D. Campbell and the office of the Merchants bank of Halifax had a very close call. John Goodwin's hotel was very badly damaged, and was only saved by determined and unceasing work. Had it not been for the iren roof on the building of C. Burrill & Co.. which served to smother the fire, nothing could have saved all the town from being wiped out. Burrill & Co.'s loss is about $50,000. As their papers and books are all in the vault they are unable to tell the full amount of insurance. They expect to get the vault open today. However, they state that they are fairly well
