ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 12, 1903.

THE MONUMENT FUND.

Over two years ago the Star opened subscriptions for a fund to erect a monument in honor of the New Brunswick soldiers who died in South Africa. A list was also opened in the mayor's office. The intention was to raise enough money to erect in the city proper a monument that would be a credit to St. John as well as a fitting memorial to the honored dead. For a time it seemed that a sufficient sum would be forthcoming, but public interest slackened and contributions ceased.

In the meantime the patriotic ladies of the north end had determined to provide a memorial park and fountain on Douglas Avenue, and as their plans developed it was also decided to have a soldiers' monument. They threw themselves into the work with great enthusiasm and well directed energy. Mrs. Baisley being the leading spirit in the movement, and their success has surpassed even their own most sanguine hopes. But they are still in need of additional funds to complete their splendid work.

It has been suggested, and the suggestion endorsed by persons representing quite a large number of the contributors to the Star fund, that it would be a graceful and appropriate act, under the circumstances, to hand over this fund to the north end committee, and thus aid them in placing a handsome memorial figure on the granite monument already erected.

To the amount of the Star fund on deposit at the Bank of Montreal remain to be added some subscriptions which were not paid in by the subscribers at the time, although their names and the amounts were stated in this paper. As to the fund in the mayor's hands, his worship authorizes the Star to state that he favors handing it over to Mrs. Baisley for the north end monument.

The Star is of opinion that this would be the best use to which these funds could be put. If any of the subscribers have a better plan, this paper will be glad to receive communications from them on the subject. If the disposition here proposed is satisfactory, the transfer will be made.

In another part of today's issue appears a statement of what the north end ladies have already done, and what still remains to be done. It must be said that they have accomplished a great deal, and deserve the thanks of the citizens.

INVITING SETTLERS.

The Quebec and Lake St. John railway has a colonization department from which the government of New Brunswick might learn a lesson. In co-operation with the Lake St. John Colonization Society the railway company has had prepared a very attractive book of fifty pages, printed on fine paper and amply illustrated, for free distribution in Europe. Here is the opening paragraph:—

"The future granary of eastern Canada and the already famous dairyland country of Lake St. John are so near to the Atlantic gateway of the domain that newly-arrived settlers from the old world on their way to this new land of promise, find themselves within half a day's journey of their future Canadian homes when they land from their European steamers in the harbor of Quebec."

Then the story proceeds. Each alternate page is a picture of a harvest field or farm of village or other striking scene, all of them from photographs taken during the harvest season of 1902. And while the pictures speak with eloquence the reading text sets forth clearly and without too many words the advantages of the country. The publication should be of great benefit to the province of Quebec.

APPLY THIS TO N. B.

The following from the Toronto Telegram is worthy of a careful reading and a local application by the voters of New Brunswick:—

"Ontario politics must go from bad to worse while the people remain fixed in their habit of excusing the actual faults of a government which has had its chance by imputing probable faults to an opposition which is yet to have its chance."

"Canadians have too much respect for governments."

"This country has never yet had reason to regret the smashing of a government, and has good reason to regret its failure to smash several governments."

"When a government deserves to go out the people should expect that government to go out, and keep on expelling its successors until an improvement is effected. There is really no punishment for political sin if the people hesitate to condemn the proved guilt of a government lest the opposition should be no better."

The convention of the Albert Co. people opened to the local government was held at Albert yesterday, when a committee was appointed from all parts of the county to nominate candidates for a meeting tomorrow, when the election will be announced.

COAL SITUATION.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers tonight issued the following circular letter to all local unions in the anthracite district:—

"You are no doubt aware that a serious coal famine exists in all the eastern and seaboard cities, due to the shortage of the anthracite coal supply. The situation has reached an acute stage and has resulted in great suffering and hardship to the poor of the cities, whose earnings are insufficient to enable them to pay the excessive prices now being charged for fuel, and it is subjecting the general public to great inconvenience."

"To relieve the situation and alleviate as far as possible the suffering now being endured is the duty of everyone connected with the production of coal. With this end in view, we are prompted to address this communication to all members of our union, and request that they co-operate with the management of the mines in an effort to increase the production of coal. The gravity of the situation is such as to require that every mine worker shall exert himself and use every means at his command to this end."

"Upon reading this communication in the columns of the daily papers, local unions should hold meetings and devise means whereby the daily output of the mines may be increased. These efforts should be continued until the weather moderates and the great necessity for fuel shall have passed."

"Signed: John Mitchell, president U. M. W. of A.; T. B. Nichols, Thomas Duffy, John Fahy, presidents Anthracite Districts."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—It is expected that congress will pass a bill removing the duty of 65 cents a ton on coal imported into this country. This bill will take the form of a rebate or drawback for 30 days, and also will provide for reciprocity, admitting free of duty coal imported into this country from countries giving the same privilege to the United States. This means Canada, and will permit Nova Scotia coal to come into this country free, while coal from the Alleghenies and westward will go into Canada free of duty. The ways and means committee will meet tomorrow, and, according to the present programme, report a bill on the above lines. It is expected it will pass the house tomorrow.

It will be taken up in the senate very soon, and the intention is to have it pass without much delay. A number of republicans who heretofore have been opposed to changing the duty on coal have said that they would not oppose the bill, providing it did not open the whole tariff question. There has been some general talk today about an agreement to pass such a bill without opening up the tariff question, and the republican leaders expect the house bill will be passed promptly by the senate.

THE CHAMPLAIN TERCENTENARY.

The date of the proposed celebration of the tercentenary of the first reported discovery of St. John by Europeans, is yet more than a year ahead, but a proper organization of the enterprise is being formed at the moment. Such at least is the view of the New Brunswick Historical Society and the St. John Natural History Society, which have already taken the matter up. Yesterday afternoon a committee of the Historical Society met at the office of Dr. A. A. Stockton, who presided. There was a general discussion of the character of the tercentenary demonstration, out of which were developed the following suggestions:—

A naval and military demonstration, including a gathering of British, French and United States ships of war.

The presence of some distinguished French orator or man of letters representing the province or town from which Champlain or De Monts came.

The annual meeting of the Royal Society of Canada, to be held at St. John at the date of the celebration.

The formal opening of the free public library as a feature of the occasion.

The attendance of the Governor-General, the first minister of Canada, and other public men of this country.

Co-operation with the celebration with that of Maine at St. Croix, in honor of the first European occupation of that island, and with any celebration that may be contemplated at Annapolis.

A gathering in from all parts of the world of natives or residents of New Brunswick now living in other lands.

Memorial services in the churches on the day nearest the anniversary.

It was drawn out as a suggestion that the oratorical and literary features of the occasion might be left with the Historical Society, and that the Natural History Society might be asked to prepare a museum or collection of objects of historic interest to be exhibited in connection with the celebration.

SPANKING GIRLS OF 18.

What Connorton Says May Go in Queens, but Brooklyn Magistrates Disunt.

(Brooklyn Eagle.)

Magistrate Luke P. Connorton of Queens, in the case of a workman named Smith, has decided that a father may publicly, in a dance hall, spank his 18-year old daughter for failing to come home by 10 p. m.—may spank her so severely that she will shrink from sedentary occupations for a day or two to come.

This view of the law, if it prevailed all over Greater New York, would be of absorbing interest to both fathers and daughters. Apparently it does not prevail in the Borough of Brooklyn. So far as could be discovered today the magistrates here are inclined to repudiate the theory of Magistrate Connorton.

Magistrate Nauman of the Myrtle avenue court, after carefully considering the question, said: "Of course, we are to assume that the young girl's best fellow would not take her to a place of ill resort, and that the father of the daughter, knowing the good and honest intentions of the young fellow toward his daughter ought to assume that the best fellow would not take her to a place of such a character. I am stating the case now the same as if it came before me in this court. This is a very delicate matter," said the magistrate thoughtfully. "A young lady's future is at stake. That being so, it was undignified and humiliating on the part of the father to spank his daughter in the presence, as I understand it, of the assembled dancers, and she was entitled to a warrant on the charge of assault."

"Bringing over the age where the consent of a father is necessary, who had a right to assume that her best fellow was going to take her to a respectable place and who is entitled to the protection of the law just the same as if she were a stranger to her father and he had assaulted her in the manner alleged. Beside that, good sense would have suggested to a fair minded father that the spanking process be conducted in the privacy of his home and not have been made a public exhibition. Then, perhaps, if he had done so there might not have been any occasion for the issuance of a warrant. Some allowance as a matter of fact would have to be made for the manner in which he tried to correct and punish his daughter. At the same time it is only proper to state that that young girl had and has some rights in the premises. I think that the newspaper discussion of the subject, however, will lead to desirable results in that it will establish a precedent for such cases, the details of which will be interesting to read."

HOW TO HANG PICTURES.

Pictures are no longer hung by a triangle of wire suspended from a nail or hook just over the centre of the picture, but are suspended by two wires attached to the upper edge of the frame and clasped by metal hooks to the moulding at the required height.

This method has been gaining favor for some years past, but now it is the only method recognized by those who desire the hanging of their pictures to be correct and artistic no less than the subjects.
