MONCTON DEFEATS CARLETON

On Saturday, Moncton defeated Carleton by thirty-one points, almost doubling their opponents' score. The West End club went down to defeat in every one of the four rinks played, in some by large majorities. Two rinks on each side played in the afternoon and two in the evening. The detailed score is as follows: Afternoon.

Near the close of the last half Chase, Sackville's point, was checked into the boards by Gregory and so badly surt that he had to be assisted off the ice. He resumed play after a delay. The lights went out in the first half, leaving the rink in entire darkness for several minutes, until repairs were effected. The Sackville team put up a surprisingly good game, showing good combination at times, Morman being the star forward line. All the Moncton team played well. The teams lined up as follows:
