The pupils in the Leinster street school are enjoying an enforced holiday this afternoon. There was a serious break in the water pipe this morning and immediate repairs were necessary and the school had to be dismissed soon after nine o'clock this morning.

Mr. R. C. Campbell, of 25 Exmouth street, was agreeably surprised last evening when several of his intimate friends called unexpectedly to congratulate him on the anniversary of his birthday. During the evening, which was most enjoyably passed with singing and dancing, Mr. Campbell, on behalf of the assembled friends, presented Mr. Campbell with an elegant dress suit case suitably engraved, also an axe (not Campbell's X X X) which he facetiously remarked would enable him to cut a few years off his age.

On Sunday evening in Centenary Church, there will be held another choral service similar to the one conducted a few weeks ago. It will begin at half past eight, late enough to permit the attendance of any who desire to go to Centenary after the close of their own services. The programme will occupy one hour and will include several of those hymns which are to be used in the evangelistic campaign. A collection will be taken in aid of the charity fund of Centenary Young Men's Club.

TO CONSIDER REPORT ON HARBOR BRIDGE

Special Meeting of the General Committee on Monday—Will Ask for More Information.

The report of the harbor bridge committee which was referred by the Common Council to the general committee, will be taken up at a special meeting at three o'clock on Monday afternoon. It is probable that the committee will take steps to secure the opinion of other bridge experts to confirm Mr. Holt's plans and before committing themselves to the project.

It is hardly likely that the scheme will be submitted to the electors at the coming civic elections.

Next week will be a busy one at City Hall as all the regular monthly meetings of the boards and committees will be held in preparation for the February meeting of the council.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL ON CHARGE OF THEFT

McCallum and Sullivan Go to a Higher Court—Seal Remanded Till Tomorrow.

In the police court this morning the case against John McCallum and John Sullivan, charged with stealing 2,000 pounds of yellow metal, the property of R. C. Elkin, was resumed. After hearing the evidence, the magistrate sent the prisoners up for trial.

James T. Seal, for the prosecution, said she was present when Sullivan asked her father to go after the metal. Deputy Chief Jenkins detailed the facts of the arrest, as previously published. He had recovered 1,100 pounds.

The prisoners were arrested on January 17.

When asked to plead, Sullivan said he had nothing to say. McCallum entered a plea of not guilty. The magistrate considered the evidence sufficiently strong to send the defendants up for trial.

James T. Seal was arrested last evening by Detective Kilpin on suspicion of breaking the window in the Imperial Life Assurance Co. with intent to steal. This morning the prisoner was remanded until Saturday.

One common drunk was remanded and Philip Rushford, who was drunk on Sherfield street, was fined $8 or thirty days.

HERE'S ANOTHER CHANCE FOR JACK BLEASON

Puglist Corran Describes His Last Bout and Wants a Second One of Six Rounds for Purse of $250

Star Paper.

I want the public to know that Smith got a fair show the day me and him had the scrap. I am only a kid and I was 26 lbs. 20 when he came to hit me first I used the Nelson grip then I landed two body blows and I caught him in the point of the jaw with a left swing. He was down and out then so when I had him on his back he cried like a baby. He told one of the men in the baggage room that he would like to have another go with me, so if that's true I will give him a go of six rounds for $250. That's all the money I can get, and I will meet him on the Every Day Club grounds or down in No. 2 hour shed.

Pat Gorman is the man ought to be in Smith's place, any low Smith don't like us kids. He is what you call the kid cop. Hope you will put this in the paper for us, I remain, yours, The only Baby Kid that ever beat a policeman.
