READ FOR DYSPEPSIA.—Too much cannot be said in praise of the Dyspepsia Flour prepared by Farwell & Rhines of Watertown, N. Y. It is a wheat flour containing all the life giving elements of three kinds of wheat, only a small part of the wheat kernel being used, and is pronounced by physicians to be the most delicate and acceptable nutriment in all stomach and intestinal troubles. This flour, while possessing the highest degree of purity and quality is sold at a price within the reach of all. Those who are interested can secure pamphlets and cooking samples by sending their name and address to the manufacturers.

—An interesting suit was decided in the Manitoba fall court Tuesday. The suit was the Northwest Commercial Travellers Association vs London Guaranty and Accident Company. 1893, when he was caught in a blizzard and frozen to death. The amount of the policy was $10,000. The court rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs holding that an accident policy covered death by freezing.

Her remains were interred in the cemetery in Parrsboro in hope of the resurrection of the just.

BEALS.—At Hebron, in the early morning of Dec. 3rd, the bright spirit of Paul, youngest son of Rev. Frank H. and Annie F. Beals, departed to be with Christ and sainted friends. He lived to be 15 years of age, for three years and three months. In the Riverside Cemetery his precious body waits in hope the dawning of the resurrection morning. Earthly friends will be glad to know that, although the struggle was severe and somewhat protracted, he was unconscious during the last seven days. The parents have in their sorrow the comforts of the gospel.

JONAS.—At Dawson Settlement, Dec. 3rd, our much esteemed sister, Mrs. Lewis Jonas, passed away to her rest in heaven. She was 66 years of age, and left a husband, three daughters and one son to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and mother. Many years ago our sister found peace in Christ and was baptized by Rev. Mr. Bunting into the First Salisbury church. Sometime afterward she transferred her membership to Dawson Settlement, where she lived a consistent Christian until she passed triumphantly to her eternal rest.

SIMMONDS.—At his home, Belmont, Lot 16, on Nov. 6th, Mr. Frank Simmonds, in his 64th year. Our Bro. was baptized 18 years ago, and was ever true to the covenant and resolution that comes to us with the people of his choice. The writer visited him a few hours before his death, and found him although suffering, yet praying to Him who alone can answer prayer. In life and in death the comfort and consolation that comes to those who trust in Christ was his. How important that our houses be set in order, that our duties be all performed, that our accounts for the last settlement be made up, and our hearts all ready for the coming of the Son of man. His death was sudden and unexpected, but with unwavering faith in Christ, he peacefully passed away to be with Him, the invisible and all powerful. When the word of death came to him, he was a man with that calm trust in God which made him whom we mourn, so tranquil and happy in his last moments. He leaves an afflicted wife, four sons, three daughters and many friends to mourn their loss.

BEANSON.—At Garland, Cornwallis, N. S., Nov. 29, Bro. George Beanson, aged 70 years, leaving a widow, 6 sons and 4 daughters. He experienced conversion many years ago, but did not make a public profession until about twenty-one years ago, when he was baptized by the Rev. J. Wallace, and joined the second century Baptist church. By his constant attendance at all the religious meetings, by his warm exhortations and earnest prayers, has shown to the church and the world how he loved the Master's cause. The gospel was his "meat and his drink," and it was his favorite topic of conversation, to his pastor he was a true friend and they were always made welcome to his hospitable home. He was held in high esteem in the community where he so long lived. He was a warm hearted, obliging neighbor, always ready to help in time of trouble. His home was a home of prayer as well as a place of love for his wife and children, his sickness was long, but through it all he was divinely sustained. He knew that death would be to him honor, glory, immortality and eternal life.

A Minister of the World

By Cassiline Atwater Mason

The love story of a young and clever country minister who leaves his rural New England parish for the pulpit of one of the most fashionable of New York's churches. His conflicting feelings of duty and of love afford the main theme for a strong romantic interest to the story, and give an interesting series of glimpses of life, divided between a quiet country parish and the gay social world of a fashionable New York congregation.

The story will have a series of striking illustrations drawn for it by W. T. Smedley. Begins in the NOVEMBER issue of
