

submitted to such Governor in Council a list of persons from which to select such Fellow or Fellows, then the Senate shall, as soon thereafter as conveniently may be, convene a meeting of Convocation; and such meeting shall nominate three persons not being Fellows if one Fellow is to be appointed, or three times as many persons not being Fellows as there shall be Fellows to be so appointed, if there shall be more than one Fellow to be appointed.

22. A person shall be appointed by the Senate to preside at the first meeting of Convocation; and at such meeting a standing Chairman of Convocation shall be chosen by the members present or the major part of them.

23. The office of Chairman of Convocation shall be an office held for the term of three years, unless sooner determined by death, resignation, or otherwise; but the Chairman shall be eligible for re-election. Within the year preceding the expiration of every term of such officer, or in case of the death or resignation of the Chairman, or any vacancy of such office, the members of Convocation present at any meeting duly convened, or the major part of them, shall elect a Chairman, who if elected during the term of office of any Chairman, shall hold office three years after the expiration of the tenure of office of such Chairman, and if elected during a vacancy, then till the expiration of the third year after the commencement of such vacancy. If from any cause no Chairman is elected to succeed any Chairman for the time being, then such last mentioned Chairman shall continue in office until his successor is appointed.

24. If the Chairman shall be absent at the time of the meeting of Convocation, or if there shall be a vacancy in the office, then, before proceeding to business, the members of Convocation then present, or the major part of them, shall elect a Chairman, who shall hold office during such meeting only.

25. All questions which shall come before Convocation shall, subject to the provisions hereinbefore contained with respect to nominations of list of Fellows, be decided by the majority of the members present exclusive of the Chairman; but the Chairman, at any meeting thereof, shall, in case of an equality of votes, have a casting vote.

26. No question shall be decided at any meeting of Convocation, unless twenty members at least shall be present.

27. Any meeting of Convocation shall have power to adjourn to a future day.

28. Once at least in every year the Senate of the University shall cause to be held an examination of candidates for degrees; and on every such examination the candidates shall be examined by examiners appointed for the purpose by the Senate, and on every such examination the candidates shall be examined in as many branches of general knowledge as such Senate shall consider the most fitting subjects of such examination.

29. Persons shall be admitted as candidates for the respective degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, Bachelor of Laws, and Doctor of Laws, Bachelor of Science and Doctor of Science, and any other degree which the Senate of the University may hereafter from time to time determine to confer, in pursuance of the power hereinafter contained, other than degrees in Medicine and Surgery, on satisfying such Senate that they respectively have completed in any of the institutions thereinafter mentioned, whilst in connection with the University hereby created, or any other institution for the time being in connection with such University, as hereinafter provided for, the course of instruction which such Senate shall from time to time by regulation in that behalf determine.

30. The following institutions shall be in connection with the University of Halifax, for the purpose set forth in the last preceding section, that is to say: King's College, at Windsor; Dalhousie College, and Saint
