NADIAN

PACIFIC KY TEAMSHIP LINES. N, CHINA, &C.,

, Feb. 5th, March 5th, '93 ISLANDS and AUSTRALIA

. Nov. 16th, 16th, '93, Jan. 16th, '94.

olonial Railway LEAVE ST. JOHN

RRIVE AT ST. JOHN:

runs each way on Express trains at 7.00 o'clock and Halifax at 7.00 om St. John for Quebec and Mon-ngh Sleeping Cars at Moncton, at in leaves St. John for Moncton every at 22.30 o'clock.

., 8th Sept., 1893.

H & ANNAPOLIS R'Y. ARRANGEMENT.

day, 2nd Oct., 1863, trains will run inday excepted) as follows:

10UTH—Express daily at 8.10 a.
ingers am; arrive at Annapolis at ingers and right fonday, Wed.
yat 1.45 p. meight fonday, Wed.
yat 1.45 p. meight fonday, Wed.
yat 1.45 p. meight fonday, Wed.
by the fonday of the fond OUTH—Passengers and Freigh Monday, Wednesday 16 a.m. Arrive at Yarmouth at oton wharf on the same days at arle, Captain. TIONAL S. S. CO. TRIPS A WEEK.

BOSTON

at Eastport with attacher for St d St. Stephen. daily up to 5 p. m. D. E. LAECHLER, Agent.

THE

Steamship Co. IMITED.)

ickest Time!

rips a Week

PROGRESS.

VOL. VI., NO. 289.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1893.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

RATHER A QUEER CASE, Whether, in the meantime, he has influenced

THE SINGULAR ADVENTURES OF A CONFIDENTIAL CLERK.

Policeman Ring Puts James Ennis into the Lock-up and the Chief Keeps Him There—He Goes to Jall—In the Meantime No Charge Is Made.

topic of conversation among the men about town, ever since Sunday. The words just English law has certain rights, and Lawyer used seem to express the idea more cor- Cowan knew too much to insist on any. rectly than would "arrest and imprison-ment," for there is a good deal of doubt was therefore taken to the central station, whether Ennis ever was legally arrested, and it is quite within bounds to say that he explained, he was lodged in the jail.

was illegally imprisoned.

Everybody who ever sought the precincts of Mr. Finn's repertorium vinorum, tody without the proper authority in the by any one of the multifarious entrances, knows James Ennis. Up to last Saturday special warrant clearly defined by law. In night he had been there eleven years or so. He was as well liked as he was well known. He could remember the time when the him. There was nothing on which to base He could remember the time when the idea was that a bar with an entrance on the most public part of Prince William street would be sure to fail because of its publicity. He had seen that theory disproved and Finn's become the place in which to look for sundry officials when they were wanted in a hurry. He was looked upon as part of the establishment behind the bar, just as certain as well-known citizens seem a part of it in front of the bar.

The child lived only a minute or so; the ago. His mother was known to have a terrible temper. Bye and bye she became insane, and was committed to Mount Hope Lunatic asylum, where for fitten years she has been confined. Richard had a brother and both were sent to a reformatory institution to be cared for. As young mention a good many wires had been pulled, and the names of fishing club men and others who were morally bound to stand others who were morally a minute or so; the murdered woman tor two bours

Mr. Finn, binding himself under a $10,000 that he and Ennis ratified the settlement, forleit not to carry on a business himself.

Then Mr. Finn took straight goods as his

The interence is that the seizure and deto be his wite she might have known she Then Air. Find took straight goods as all motto, and set out to get as rich as John Horn had got. At a later date, however, Mr. Horn seems to have repented of his bargain, and though he did not enter into isiness over his own name, an establishthe charge against Ennis, if there was a ment was started in which some suspected charge. The daily papers, at the outset, after interviews with Chief Clark and Mr. rowed to suit the circumstances. Mr. Ennis was then with Mr. Horn, and he proved himself Mr. Finn's friend by giving him some pointers in regard to the violated compact. Mr. Finn brought suit, and the most important witness, who was not Mr. Finn charged Ennis with a felony, Ennis was in the how prepared to give him. Ennis, was in the box, prepared to give his evidence, when Horn settled the case for thing seemes to have run smoothly was worth knowing in the line of regular buyers of wet goods, and from all that can be learned, he seems to have been pretty big-hearted in his dealings with them. He was "in" with a number of not obscure citizens whose tastes run to fishing clubs and club houses, and Ennis appears to have be detained there, and by what right was he detained there, and by what right was he lodged as a prisoner in the common jail?

The matter?

After the marriage Savage and his wife went to New York. Five years with such a husband was enough and at last she escaped from Lim with the child. Those were weary years of trouble and danger. Savage had an evil spirit. When the woman said to others, "Come away." Savage had an evil spirit. When the woman was ill with rheumatic tever he comman was ill with the ambulance, but even until the murder-er was brought out. Then there were excapted from Lim with the day of reckoning comes, and Programs sounded him on the question a the Ellis contempt case will amount to the ambulance, but even until the murder-er was brought out. Then there was worth knowing in the line of regular the matter?

citizens whose tastes run to fishing clubs and club houses, and Eanis appears to have should do. There was some self-satisfaction in this, of course, but there was also the fact that he was Mr. Finn's head man, that his friends were Mr. Finn's customers, and that, all in all, Mr. Finn's establishment was pretty well advertised. The friends of Eanis always spent their money over Finn's bar when they were anywhere near that part of the town.

Quite recently so it is, said, Mr. Finn discovered that cigars and liquors had been sent away from his establishment by Mr. Ennis, and that they had neither been paid for nor charged. Then he began to investigate. Just what he found or did not find has not been learned, but he appears to have had an idea that he was defrauded. One of the daily papers is authority for the statement that he reckoned his loss at $3,000, this presumably covering all the alleged distributions of Ennis for the passileven years or so. It has, however, not yet been claimed that Ennis has run fast horses or anything else in the fast line, nor does he appear to have laid up any wealth or the contingency of a rainy day.

Hy what authority and by what right was he lodged as a prisoner in the common juil?

It was open to Mr. Cowan to apply for the release of Mr. Ennis, and ther save the release of Mr. Ennis, and the save of the release of Mr. Ennis, and the save of the release of Mr. Ennis, and the save of the release of Mr. Ennis, and the assert of the release of Mr. Ennis, and the save of the release of Mr. Ennis, and the save of the release of Mr. Ennis, and the save of the release of Mr. Ennis, and ther save of the release of Mr. Ennis, and there are to bring the matter of the affair neither convicted nor acquitted. Whether he is fine and money by waiting.

Mr. Ennis converted the save of the save of Mr. Ennis and there, and by what tight was he lodged as a prisoner in the common to bring the release of Mr. Ennis, and ther save of the release of Mr. Ennis, and there, and be release of Mr. Ennis, and Finn is another matter not of record Nevertheless, at Mr. Finn's instance and by there just the same.

Four days passed, and yet no information as part of the establishment behind the bar, just as certain as well-known citizens seem a part of it in front of the bar.

A good many people thought be was a silent partner, but be was usually referred to as Mr. Finn and Mr. Ennis began under petuliar circumstances. As all the 'old-timers know, the late John Horn had built up a splendid business and had a reputation for selling thought straight goods. Thinking that he and Ennis ratified the settlement, where was not make a many of their companion as part of the restriction of the partners of the partn was engaging herself to a madman. Mag- and an immense crowd gathered. Chief of gie did not seem to care for her impetuous lover, but he took remarkable means to yet more strange. He won his way by threats, as it is said by one of the dead woman's sisters. She says that on one occasion while walking together in Dartmouth, when he was urging Maggie to marry him and she declining, he said: "Look here, Maggie (producing a revolver,) I am determined you shall marry me; both." She married him; and yet in yes terday's tragedy, she more than paid what would have been the penalty of refusal.

something like $2,000.

Mr. Finn then took Ennis into his employ, and presented him with a gold watch and chain. From that time forward everya felony or he was not. It he was, under what section of the Criminal Code did Mr. what section of the Criminal Code did Mr.

Savage had an evil spirit. When the man was ill with rheumatic tever he compelled her to walk around. Mrs. Savage's the murderer.

The murder and suicide were tully presenting to the following letter,

ROMANCE AND MURDER. other hand, Savage's last letters were brutal He defied his wife to get a divorce, HOW SAVAGE PUT AN END TO HIM-SELF AND HIS FAMILY. and he swore before his Maker that, if she did, he would never allow her to marry an-The Tragedy that Startled Halifax—It was the Old Storr—She Married a Brute and Found Out Her Mistake Too Late—Cold Blooded Murder.

Ilalifax, Nov. 8.—Never before was the same time about a few little things that other. He told her she had had ber in home from New York five years ago to marry the young woman of his choice. She consented, though when she promised Cathedral, and on a principal thoroughfare. The ambulance backed to the sidewalk

what section of the Criminal Code did Mr.
Ennis, of course, knew everybody who as worth knowing in the line of regular the matter?

what section of the Criminal Code did Mr.
Ritchie connive at an "arrangement" of himself and the community.

what section of the Criminal Code did Mr.
Other such man as Richard—a menace to himself and the community.

HOW SUBSCRIBERS TO THE ELLIS

Hatter, and the came and any information been laid on warrant, nor had any information been laid. The daily paper on the east the previous day was both this young wife and the prospects are that by the time it is and inclined to the old guinea-a-day idea. The well is studied to the came the previous day was both this young wife and the prospects are that by the time it is and inclined to the old guinea-a-day idea. The well as most the same time about a few little things that the worman claimed as her property. Sand the prospects are that by the time it is and inclined to the old guinea-a-day idea. The well as the property of the was quite dillerent in the entire and the prospects are that by the time it is and inclined to the old guinea-a-day idea. The well as the property of the work had been one of the time that the property. Sand the prospects are that by the time it is and inclined to the old guinea-a-day idea. The well as the property of the was quite dillerent to make the came himself to meet the cost keep and the prospects are that by the time it is and inclined to the old guinea-a-day idea. The was guite distributed but the property. Sand the prospects are that by the time it is and inclined to the old guinea-a-day idea. The was guite all they would come by steamer, and the prospects are that by the time it is and inclined to the old guinea-a-day idea. The was guite all they come to the sum of the sum to go take the came himself as the came himself as the property. Sand the property. Sand the property. Sand the property of the was guite all the came himself as the came himself as the came himself as the property. Sand the property. Sand the property of the property of the property of the property of the property. Sand the property of the property. Sand the property of bere; I have made a little home for myselt, and I will not go with you." Thus of this kind, the outside sympathy or astrip. was spent the last conscious half hour up-on earth of the two.

sistance that will come to them will not amount to very much. The letters referred

E. S. Carter, Esq., Editor of PROGRESS, St. John, N. B.
Dear Sir.—Enclosed find P. O. for $3, which I send you towards the Ellis Memorial Fand. At the same time I desire to extend my congratulations on your being so fortunate in being the originator of such a praiseworthy object. Secon I to Mr. Ellis himself you stand for commendation in upholding what all must regard as a patriotic principle. I have every confidence that the nublic will heartily respond to your call as by doing so it will furnish a substantial endorsation of the true and noble sentiment which the numerous press comments throughout the land have so ably and pertunently cannot at the land have so ably and pertunently cannot.

Then Messrs. C. Flood & Sons did not wait to be called upon, but with characteristic promptness placed a contract with the Record for twelve inches. Only a few firms have been approached, on account of the shortness of time the Record on account of the shortness of time the Record has had

The thirty days' sentence of air. Ems will expire tomorrow, but it is understood the shortness of time the Record has had to see them, but the very best advertisers in the city are already included in its list of John on the latter day. Arrangements are now making for a reception in which not only liberals but independent men outside of party lines will take part.

work at four dollars a week to support herselt and the boy.

She was getting on nicely except for a series of letters which alarmed her, and some of them were far from concilliatory. The ill-feeling grew with each letter. At last Mrs. Savage told her husband that she had only married him because forced to do so; that she hated him; that she hoped he would apply for a divorce that if he did not she would apply for a divorce that if he did not she would secure a divorce that if he did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she will not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would secure a divorce that if she did not she would not regret being at liberty to do so should she wish in the tuture. On the she would she will not she would she will not she would she will not she would not regret being at liberty to do so should she wish in the tuture. On the she would not regret being at liberty to do should not regret being at liberty to

"What about the costs as between at torney and client?"

torney and client?"
Mr. Currey said that these were also uncreased the Compose to Give Him a Reception.

Mr. Currey said that these were also uncreased the Compose to Give Him a Reception. The "Ellis Fund" is still accumulating, and the prospects are that by the time it is needed fully enough will have been sub-was spent the last conscious half hour upon earth of the two.

SOMETHING ABOUT "THE RECORD."

Finally Savage whipped out a self-cocking revolver, and sent a bullet into his wite's head. A secord later the four year old boy fell, the lead going through his little head, and the child lay on his face across his mother's feet. Savage made his own turn come next, and promptly placed the pistol below his right ear and drove a bullet crashing upwards through jaw and eye into the forehead.

The child lived only a minute or so; the murdered woman for two hours, and the murderer-suicide survived in an unconscious state till late in the evening.

A policeman tells how he ran to the house up a flight of stairs and found the door pigra about three inches. He shoved the door open a foot and saw the woman to the content of the content many names have been mentioned, but COSTS AN UNKNOWN QUANTITY. none of them have hit the mark, the pro-Mr. Currey Says They Will be much Less Than People have Supposed.

Prictors say. They propose to have the Record edited fearlessly and independently. Mr. L. A. Currey is the one man who however, and the value of the editoria brother worked in the Brooklyn Navy yard and on one occasion he caught Savage illusing Maggie. Had she not begged him off, Richard's career might have ended there. It went beyond endurance at last, and then the woman who, if she had not loved, had at least endured her husband, now hated him. She ran away with the child and back to Halitax. Here she got work at four dollars a week to support herself and the boy.

She was getting on nicely except for a series of letters which alarmed her and suicide were tully premeditated, according to the following letter, dated November 1st, found in Savage's pocket:

The murder and suicide were tully premeditated, according to the following letter, dated November 1st, found in Savage's pocket:

The murder and suicide were tully premeditated, according to the following letter, dated November 1st, found in Savage's pocket:

"If there should be money enough found upon my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my tronk and contents to insure a burial place for my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my tronk and contents to insure a burial place for my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my tronk and contents to insure a burial place for my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my tronk and contents to insure a burial place for my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my tronk and contents to insure a burial place for my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my tronk and contents to insure a burial place for my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my tronk and contents to insure a burial place for my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my body, and what may be realized by the sale of my body, and what may be realized by the