Are they not exquisite in their soft rich BLACK DRESS FABRICS

"Are they not exquisite in their soft rich BLACK DRESS FABRICS?" is the constant remark of ladies touching Priestley's famous black dress goods. And that is the truth, but it is not the whole description, for they have a character for refinement, for wearing and draping quality, which no other dress goods can lay claim to. The Priestley's appear to have gathered up all their excellences, and concentrated them in "Eudora," the latest black dress fabric they have given to the world. In every respect equal to the famous Henrietta, it surpasses them in extra width, and weight, and in dust-repelling quality. It is wrapped on "The Varnished Board" and Priestley's name is stamped on every five yards.

Social and Personal.

ST. JOHN—South End.

"It never rains but it pours" might be interpreted in more ways than one this week. I originally in- tended to use the adage in connection with society's gay doings recently, when I remembered that the too literal minded might put a different construction upon it. However, it suits whichever way you look at it so now that it is written it might be just as well to let it stand as it is. The past week has been very gay with pic- nics, parties, teas, drives, etc., but the most important social event was, of course, Mrs. Sias Alward's "at home" on Thursday afternoon from four to seven o'clock given in honor of Mrs. Tur- bull. A great many ladies were present, but the dull threatening state of the weather prevented a display of the bright toilettes which otherwise would have been worn. The grounds around "Sunnyvale", looked very pretty, and the rooms were bright and cheerful. Mrs. Alward was assisted in dispensing tea and cake and ice, by Miss May Harrison, Miss L. Harrison, Miss Burpee, Miss Kaye and Miss Tuck; Mrs. Starr and Miss Lawson poured the tea and coffee. Miss May Harrison and Miss Tuck were in pale blue dresses. Miss L. Harrison, Miss Kaye, Miss Burpee, and Miss Kaye were in a pretty high dress. There were several brides present all beautifully gowned. Mrs. F. J. H. Ruel, wore black and white silk, and a large black feather, which was most becoming; Mrs. Turbull wore a pretty cream dress; Miss Hope Grant was also wearing a very pretty gown; Miss Dever was in pink silk with black trimmings. The hostess was in a dark gown with pink and jet trimmings. Among the ladies who attended the reception were, Constance deBarry, Mrs. deBarry, Mrs. Morris Hazen, Mrs. Tuck, Miss Tuck, Mrs. J. R. Armstrong, Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. F. J. H. Ruel, Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Mrs. Keator, Miss Keator, Mrs. Warner, Miss Warren, Mrs. James Taylor, Miss Furlong, Miss Drinkwater, (Montreal), Mrs. D. P. Chisholm, Mrs. Holden, Miss Holden, Mrs. de Wolfe Spurr, Mrs. Louise Skinner, Mrs. Geo. K. McLeod, Mrs. Isaac Burpee, Mrs. Charles Kinney, Mrs. John Burpee, Mrs. L. Allison, Mrs. Charles Harrison, Miss Kaye, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. Dever, Mrs. C. E. L. Jarvis, Miss Jarvis, Mrs. Wright, Miss Wright, Mrs. D. Seely, Miss Seely, Mrs. G. M. Armstrong, Miss Dorothy Armstrong, Mrs. J. Stone, Miss Dicker, Mrs. Wm. Harrison, Miss Harrison, Mrs. J. Harrison, Miss Harrison, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. W. Lawton, Mrs. Mowat, Mrs. Chipman Smith, Mrs. Starr, Mrs. Glitchist, Miss Burpee, Mrs. Lawson, Miss Harriet, Peters, Mrs. Turnbull, Mrs. Warren, Miss Albion, (Halifax), Mrs. Hope Grant, Mrs. Matthews, Miss Matthews, Miss Carr, Mrs. Allison, Mrs. Scammell, Mrs. Fues- ley, Miss Fuesley.

Mrs. F. H. J. Ruel's second reception on Tuesday last was much more largely attended than the preceding one as the day, fortunately, was one of the very few fine days we have had so far this summer. The same young ladies who assisted Mrs. Ruel last week were also present on Tuesday; they were kept very busy as a very large number of persons attended during the afternoon.

Mrs. Barbara, of Montreal, in visiting her parents and Mrs. Dwyer, Mr. Barbara who was also here for a short time has returned to Montreal. There was a very pleasant whist party at the residence of E. C. Jones, on Thursday evening. Quite a number of guests were present and spent a very enjoyable evening.

Miss Albion, of Halifax, is the guest of Miss Lollie Harrison this week.

Mrs. Stratton, of "Lauriston" who has been visit- ing in Bridgetown returned to the city on Tuesday and stayed a day or two before going to Westfield where she is now the guest of Mrs. W. A. Adams who is spending the summer there. Little Miss Phyllis Stratton is in Rothesay with her grandmother, Mr. King.

Mr. A. Adams, Mr. Fred Hart and Mr. T. Wyl- der Daniel spent three very enjoyable days in Bridgetown this week.

Miss Helen Purong returns to Boston, on Mon- day to resume her musical studies under Prof. Charles Lozier.

Mr. L. P. D. Tiley and Mr. H. G. Tiley are giv- ing quite a large picnic at Rothesay today. In ad- dition to the Rothesay people quite a number of the city folk will go out. Among them Mrs. Charles Harrison, who chaperones the party, Miss Bayard, Miss Dever, Miss Furlong, Mrs. and Mr. F. H. J. Ruel, Mr. and Miss Caverhill-Jones, Mr. Keator, Mr. Blair, Mr. E. F. Jones, Mr. Burpee, Mr. Kirk- wood, Mr. Gerrard.

Mr. John Montgomery L. B. has been visiting his home in Dalhousie, N. S.

Mrs. Usher, and her daughter, of Edinburgh who have been visiting the Messrs. Caverhill-Jones, leave for home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allison and family left yester- day on a little trip through Nova Scotia.

The Messrs. Bonnell gave a picnic on Friday afternoon to a number of their friends. It was planned for Thursday but was postponed as the day was damp and disagreeable. The party went out to the Bay Shore in the afternoon which was spent very pleasantly, in various ways. They returned to the city late in the evening. Among those who went were Mrs. C. Francis, Miss D. Kirkpatrick, Miss J. Patterson, Miss J. Peters, Miss B. Roberts, Miss K. Nowell, Miss R. Henderson, Misses G. and L. Lindsay, Miss M. Lindsay, Miss K. Wilton, Miss E. Small, Miss N. Goddard, Miss L. Francis, Miss E. Gunter, Miss E. Francis, Miss L. Wetmore, Miss B. Alling- ham, Misses Bonnell, Messrs. W. Davis, D. Fidgeon J. Gillespie, J. Dolg, F. Tait A. Cook, W. McParlane, G. Mr. Isaac Burpee, of Fredericton, is in St. John to spend his summer vacation.

Miss M. Devereaux, of Dalhousie, is the guest of Mr. W. McIntyre, Mecklenburg street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Quinn, now of Michigan, arrived in St. John last week, and are valuing re- latives here and in Charlotte county.

The first rally-ho party of the season went out to Loch Lomond on Wednesday and a merry time was spent. The big rally-ho owed with picnics and it never had a larger or jollier crowd on board. Besides, there was a barouche and several private carriages. E. J. Harrison was there with his cor- net and he made the echoes ring on the way out. At the lake a pleasant spot was selected for the pic- nic headquarters and then boating, baseball, and dashing was enjoyed, the music for the last amuse- ments being furnished by Morton L. Harrison. The ladies served tea on the green and the re- turn was made at 10.30. Coming in all the latest songs and old time melodies were sung. The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Morton L. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Leitch, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simpson, Mrs. W. E. O. Jones, Mrs. J. Bigby, Mrs. Frank Williams, Mrs. G. E.
