

LIVE TOPICS OF SPORT AT HOME AND ABOARD

THE SAINTS DEFEAT THE F.M.A. TEAM

In a hotly contested game on the Marathon grounds last evening the St. Peters further strengthened their hold on first position in the City League by defeating the F. M. A. ball tossers, 7-6. The game was close and exciting throughout and was a very interesting exhibition for the large crowd which attended.

The F. M. A. scored three in the first whilst St. Peters were unable to bring a runner across the plate. They opened with two in the second, however, and the F. M. A. added one.

In the fourth with three on bases and two down Manager Colahan sent "Johnny" Dever in to bat and he made good with a two bagger, scoring all three men. No further scoring was done after the fourth and the game ended 7-6, in favor of St. Peters.

Both teams deserve great credit for the good game they put up last evening. Gibbons, J. Dever and H. Dever played fine ball for the Saints whilst Callaghan, Drumie and Myers did stellar work for the F. M. A. Eddie Ramsay umpired satisfactorily.

The Rocklands will meet the Carleton team this evening.

The box score follows:

St. Peters.		F. M. A.
AB	RBI	PO	A
F. Dever, 3b	0	0	0
Gorman, 1b	3	0	0
Harrington, ss	3	0	0
McCormick, rf	3	2	0
J. Dever, c	3	1	3
Gibbons, 2b	3	1	2
H. Dever, cf	1	0	1
Cunningham, lf	1	0	2
Howard, p	1	0	1
John Dever, 3b	2	1	0
Totals	20	7	15

F. M. A.		St. Peters.
AB	RBI	PO	A
Myers, 2b	2	1	2
Callaghan, 1b	4	1	0
Drumie, ss	2	1	2
Garnett, cf	2	1	0
Galagher, rf	3	1	0
Graves, 3b	3	2	0
Donovan, c	2	0	4
Milan, lf	2	0	0
Harrington, p	3	0	0
Totals	24	8	15

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENTS.

The Royal Gazette contains the following provincial appointments: Albert—M. H. Martin to be an issuer of marriage licenses. Carleton—Mrs. Ella S. A. Dibble to be a member of the Board of School Trustees for the town of Woodstock. Charlotte—James Stoop, of St. Andrews, to be an auctioneer.

Madawaska—Mack Dufour to be a Labor Act Commissioner for the Parish of St. Jacques, in place of J. A. Charest.

Restigouche—Thomas Ellsworth, James Pichette and Joseph Hovey Taylor, to be a Board of Liquor License Commissioners for the town of Campbellton, the said Thomas Ellsworth to be chairman of the said board.

St. John—Frank S. Walker to be a member of the Provincial Board of Health, in place of Angus J. Murray, deceased.

LAJOIE BACK IN CLEVELAND'S LINE-UP.

"Nap" Lajoie, the great Frenchman, is back again in the line-up with the Cleveland Americans and is hitting in his old time form. With "Joe" Jackson as his teammate the Clevelanders surely have a splendid pair of clubbers.

SPORTOGRAPHY

BY "GRAVY"

Frank Gotch had Hard Work to Send Parr to the Mat.

Frank Gotch, the star of the wrestling game, has defeated a lot of good men in his long career, but perhaps the hardest battle of his career was that with Jim Parr, the English catch as catch can grappler, at Buffalo, nine years ago today. After the bout the Iowa farmer declared that Parr was the speediest and most scientific rough and tumble wrestler he had ever met. A big crowd gathered in Buffalo to see the combat, and hundreds of wrestling fans from Canada were present to cheer the Britisher. Gotch had an advantage in weight of a dozen pounds or so, and he needed it and all his strength and cleverness in the engagement with the Englishman, who had been the victor in over a thousand mat bouts. Parr missed things from the very start, trying out his adversary. The first quarter-hour was a continual mis-up, with honors easy. Parr had been accustomed to achieve victory by a "scissors hold," but when he tried it on the Iowa man he found himself flying unceremoniously over his opponent's head. Now one down, now the other, the representatives of Uncle Sam and John Bull waged their furious combat until, at the end of about thirty minutes, Parr was pinned to the mat by a half Nelson and a toe hold. When they went at it again, Parr's spirit was still undaunted, and he rushed the American until Gotch had to give ground. Willing but wary, the Englishman narrowly escaped a speedy finish and came back strong, sending Gotch to the mat, but was unable to hold them there. A minute later and Gotch was up and Parr down. A scissor to the body, after twenty-eight minutes, won the victory for the American. Parr was a thorough sportsman, and made no excuses, but admitted that the best man had won. His game, clever battle, and his attitude in defeat won the respect of every spectator, and the cheers and applause were as much for vanquished as victor.

American professional golfers will engage in a tournament with the professional stars of the French links at La Boule, France, beginning today.

Chicago, Ill., June 26.—Jack Johnson, negro prize fighter, will serve his term of a year and a day in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, instead of the State penitentiary at Joliet, if the United States circuit court of appeals and the United States supreme court sustains the verdict of guilty of violation of the Mann Act. Federal Judge Carpenter so stipulated yesterday at the request of Johnson's attorney.

BASEBALL
IN THE BIG LEAGUES

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Philadelphia Takes Two.

At Washington—First game: Philadelphia, 0120001—11 16 2. Washington, 010001000—2 5 1.

Batteries: Plank and Schanz; Mullin, Engel, Wilson, Henry and Almsmith.

Second game: Philadelphia, 030021400—10 11 0. Washington, 020000001—3 10 2.

Batteries: Brown, Bender and Lapp; Groom, Wilson, Henry and Almsmith.

St. Louis 7, Detroit 5.

At Detroit: St. Louis, 2001200000002—7 16 1. Detroit, 0000100400000—5 10 1.

Batteries: Lavered and Agnew; Dauss, House, Seamlach, Stange and Rondeau.

Chicago 7, Cleveland 5.

At Chicago: Cleveland, 302000000—5 7 6. Chicago, 030103000—7 8 1.

Batteries: Greig and Carlsch; Walsh, Benz, Russell and Schalk.

No game.

At Boston, June 26—New York vs. Boston, no game; wet grounds.

AMERICAN LEAGUE Standing.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Philadelphia	15	7	.682
Cleveland	40	26	.606
Chicago	36	31	.537
Washington	34	31	.523
Boston	28	38	.424
Detroit	27	41	.397
St. Louis	26	44	.371
New York	18	42	.300

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Cincinnati 5, Chicago 3.

At Cincinnati: Chicago, 000002001—3 8 0. Cincinnati, 010210000—5 13 2.

Batteries: Cheney and Bresnahan; Browne and Clark.

St. Louis 5, Pittsburgh 4.

At St. Louis: Pittsburgh, 000013000—4 6 1. St. Louis, 000002003—5 8 2.

Batteries: Hendrix and Coleman; Salles and Roberts.

Brooklyn Takes Two.

At Philadelphia—First game: Brooklyn, 1100000000000—5 10 1. Philadelphia, 0000010100000—2 11 2.

Batteries: Rucker, Curtin and Fisher; Rixey, Seaton and Kilfer.

Second game: Brooklyn, 000002002—4 11 0. Philadelphia, 000010010—2 6 0.

Batteries: Rucker, Curtin and Fisher; Alexander, Doolin and Kilfer.

New York Wins Two.

At New York—First game: Boston, 000000000—4 11 2. New York, 000001400—5 10 2.

Batteries: Tyler, James and Whaling; Promme, Crandall, Mathewson, Meyers and Wilson.

Second game: Boston, 000000012—3 8 4. New York, 011160020—11 15 0.

Batteries: Hess, Noyes, Whaling and Brown; Mathewson, Crandall, Meyers and Hartley.

National League Standing.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Philadelphia	38	19	.667
New York	37	23	.615
Brooklyn	32	26	.552
Chicago	32	30	.516
Pittsburgh	28	33	.455
Boston	25	35	.417
St. Louis	26	36	.419
Cincinnati	23	39	.371

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE.

Newark 6, Montreal 5.

At Newark: Montreal, 000501000—6 6 2. Newark, 000000000—5 10 2.

Batteries: Lee and Hamilton; Higgins; McGraynor and Burns.

Rochester 12, Jersey City 4.

At Jersey City: Rochester, 020130213—12 13 0. Jersey City, 300001000—4 6 5.

Batteries: Wilhelm and Jacklitch; McHale, Brandon and Wells.

Baltimore 5, Buffalo 2.

At Baltimore: Buffalo, 301010000—5 12 3. Baltimore, 000001010—2 4 1.

Batteries: Cottrell and Egan; Fulewider and Gowdy.

Toronto 7, Providence 6.

At Providence: Toronto, 000330000—7 12 2. Providence, 100200021—6 12 2.

Batteries: Maxwell and Bemis; Yates, Reisigl and Kocher.

International League Standing.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Newark	44	23	.657
Rochester	40	28	.588
Buffalo	36	32	.529
Providence	31	34	.477
Baltimore	22	34	.465
Jersey City	28	34	.452
Montreal	26	35	.428
Toronto	24	41	.369

N. B. and Maine League Standing.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
St. Croix	11	6	.647
Fredericton	13	8	.619
Marathons	15	10	.600
Bangor	3	18	.143

Maine Farmers Coming Here. James Gilchrist, secretary of the Farm Settlement Board, returned from a trip through Westmorland county yesterday. He states that he saw a number of desirable farms which he will recommend the Board to take over and hold for new settlers. A. B. Wilmet has been in Charlotte county where he arranged to take over a number of farms for the Board. A. W. Hay who has placed a number of farmers from Maine on farms in the province has written Mr. Gilchrist that he has received four more applications from men in Maine who want farms in New Brunswick.

MARATHONS
LOSE GAME TO FREDERICTON

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, June 26.—Joe Tarbell took an ascension this afternoon that broke all the N. B. and Maine altitude records for aviation this season. It occurred in the 6th inning and before Joe had taken to shelter and Dedrich could stop the fullide, twelve Fredericton batters had taken turns at bat and eight runs had been scored, these eight runs were as many as St. John could garner in the whole nine innings.

Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

Dedrich succeeded Tarbell in the 6th place by a total of 9 to 8. Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.

CHRISTY
MATHEWSON
OF GIANTS

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, June 26.—Joe Tarbell took an ascension this afternoon that broke all the N. B. and Maine altitude records for aviation this season. It occurred in the 6th inning and before Joe had taken to shelter and Dedrich could stop the fullide, twelve Fredericton batters had taken turns at bat and eight runs had been scored, these eight runs were as many as St. John could garner in the whole nine innings.

Each side used eleven players and had three pitchers working in the various stages of the contest. Inagalls started against Tarbell and he was effective when he could get the ball over the plate, but was too generous with his transportation, issuing six passes until he was taken out. With one out, a run in, and one man in in the seventh, Manager Ganley called upon Edwards, the latest addition to the hurling staff. He was easy picking for the Greeks and lasted only an inning, when Conlon, the emergency man, again came to the rescue and held the Marathons safe.