Owing to the cold weather the open door was not de rigor at City Hall yesterday. For the first time in the city's history, according to the oldest citizen, a sign, a beautifully manufactured sign, done in as many colors as Jospeh's coat, was hung athwart the doorway, bidding the wayfaring public in language imperative to keep the door closed. More than this to emphasize the extent of the closure, a strip, of carpet was nalled along the slam of the door jamb to keep the weather out.

Report Successful Year at the Annual Meeting of the Church of England

The deficit of $120 on the year's work of the Church of England Institute was wiped out at the annual meeting last evening, when those present contributed enough to square up the account for the year. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and everyone present showed a great interest in the work.

The officers for the year were elected as follows:

President, Rev. R. A. Armstrong; vice-presidents, J. K. Schoffeld, R. Frith, Mrs. G. F. Smith and Mrs. W. D. Forster.
