

"Monoclass" means one class. Monoclass Cabin Steam-ships carry one class of cabin passengers only, instead of two (first and second).

The Canadian Pacific Monoclass Cabin Service to Europe is a moderate rate service, the rates of passage being only slightly in excess of regular second-class fare on two-cabin class ships.

Monoclass Cabin Steamships are comfortable ships. The "community" rooms around which the ship's life centres are bright, attractive and commodious. Passengers use all the upper promenade decks. The dining-saloon service and cuisine are of the highest standard. Staterooms are well furnished and well ventilated, with a courteous and efficient steward service.

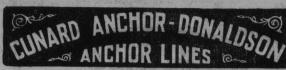

FROM Monoclass Cabin Steamships sail from MONTREAL Montreal—the largest city in Canada, headquarters of the Canadian Pacific, a city of charm, interest and picturesqueness.

The voyage begins on the sheltered St. Lawrence routs, with nearly three days on this beautiful River and Gulf, which merges an inland fresh-water journey into an ocean salt-water one so gradually that the change is imperceptible.

Calgary, Alta., April 11.—The declaration that the children of the Doukhobors along with the aged members of the community should be destroyed in order to alleviate the sufferings of the colony, was made purely with the idea of bringing their plight to the attention of the British Columbia government, Peter Veregin, leader of the Doukhobors, who issued the declaration, declared to a representative of a local paper recently. Never for a moment was his remarks meant to be taken seriously, although several women of the colony expressed a willingness to follow the suggestion which the Doukhobor chieftain made.

The publicity given his declaration, Mr. Veregin declares, has resulted in the British Columbia government showing a willingness to help. At Nelson a short time ago, Premier Oliver promised to advance a loan of $50,000 to the colony, while the members will hereafter be given credit against their taxes for all road work. This offer has met with every demand which the Doukhobor leader made.

Mr. Veregin said the Doukhobors had no intention of migrating from Canada.
