A Host of Summer Dresses

Chatterbox Says:

Although the one-piece dress is still smart and worn a great deal for street wear, there are many women who never see well "turned out" unless they are wearing a suit. But when old Sol goes to get a new suit, he gets a new one—black or navy blue taffeta, the latter embroidered, gray, for that color combination is still the vogue. A blue tulle, made up as a tuxedo "Style Co." There are very smart suits also of blue silk, poplin, with all the latest "points"—narrow belt, flare cuffs and embroidery. A light weight coat wrap of black satin with a quilted "Cow" collar and a wide band of quilting on the edge of the coat is distinctly smart.

AS A WOMAN THINKETH

By HELEN ROWLAND
(Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)
New Wedding-Vows for Old

My son, hast thou a little "Gold-Digger" in thine heart?
For, behold, not all the gold-diggers are found upon Broadway, and not all the gilded ones dance in the chorus. Lo, in the House of Matrimony, there dwell seven BANDITS.
There is the graduate, who deceiveth her Beloved with padded bills and "doctored" accounts, and secret treaties with the milliner and the grocer.
And there is the highwayman, who holdeth his husband up upon Saturday night as firmly but sweetly taketh his pay-envelope from him—and hereafter doleth out its contents in dimes and pennies.
And there is the "politician" who lureth his dollars from him with smiles and flatteries, saying, "As THY wife, Beloved, I must array myself creditably; for I am SO proud of thee!"
And there is the pickpocket, who robbeth through the pockets of her spouse, in the dark watches of the night, while he sleepeth.
And there is the "confidence-woman" who enticeth her Beloved to "go shopping" with her, and induceth the most alluring of the saleswoman to help her, until he is indeed fortunate to escape with his cash.
And there is the baby-ramp, who coaxed her husband's dollars away with kisses, and baby-talk, and the "Oh-what-a-pretty-little-thing-I-am-to-have-such-a-nice-big-generous-husband!" method of persuasion.
And there is the gentle blackmail-er, who capitalizeth all her husband's mistakes and failings and foibles; who weepeth and waileth and can only be silenced with BRIBES and much "hush-money;" and whose imported hats are the wages of her husband's follies.

Yet, I charge thee, my Daughter, condemn them NOT in thine heart.
For, to extract money from a man, after marriage, is a peradventure more difficult than to extract a proposal of marriage from him, before marriage.
Go to! If thou asketh a man for his heart, thou shalt receive a stone!
And if thou asketh him for the price of a new hat, thou shalt receive a stony glare.
For, the last way in all the world to get anything from a MAN, from love unto money, and from a confession unto a kiss, is to ASK him for it!
Lo, a bachelor would rather be jilted and lured into marriage, than invited into it; and a husband preferreth to be coaxed and tricked and grafted upon, rather than to make a "business contract" of marriage.
For to play SATYRA CLEAUS to a woman is the delight of a man's life! And, peradventure, it shall come to pass, in the millennium, that a wife shall not be forced to blindfold a man and back him into marriage. Neither shall any woman be forced to place a man under the influence of an anesthetic, in order to make him say, "I love you!"
But, verily, verily, until that time cometh, my Beloved, all women shall continue to be either "deceitful" and happy, or single and self-supporting. And every man shall have a little Gold-Digger in his home!
Selah.

Good-Bye To Public Health Nurses

Addresses Given by Hon. Dr. Roberts, Mrs. Kuhring and R. T. Hayes at Red Cross.

A meeting of the Red Cross was held Thursday evening in the rooms of the society to say good-bye to the Public Health nurses who are leaving the city to take up their work in various parts of the Province. The Rev. Dr. Roberts made an address and assured the nurses of the support of the Red Cross in all their activities and of any aid that they should need in their work. The President, R. T. Hayes, spoke briefly and gave the nurses the good will and best wishes of the association.
Mrs. G. A. Kuhring for the Organization Committee explained the relation of the work of the Red Cross to the work they were undertaking, and assured them of the warm sympathy, interest and cooperation of the members of the Red Cross whom they would find in the fields they were entering upon. Present at the meeting were the President, R. T. Hayes, Vice-President, Col. Murray MacLaren, C. M. G., Vice President, Mrs. John McAvity and other members of the executive.

THOUSAND RED CROSS JUNIORS

Ontario Has Enrolled Sixty Schools and 1,500 Members—Soldiers Being Cared for.

Sixty schools and some 1,500 individual members have been enrolled in the Junior Red Cross, was the announcement made at a meeting of the Red Cross, Western Ontario Branch, Executive, Toronto, held recently. Mrs. H. P. Plumtree presided.
It was reported that work in connection with the military hospitals was being actively carried on, comforts being provided also for the hospitals at Camp Borden and at Niagara. Col. H. W. Blaylock, returned from overseas, was present, and was introduced by Col. Noel Marshall.

TIPS TO HOUSEWIVES.

When you want to bake only one or two potatoes and do not wish to use the gas oven, place them on an asbestos mat over the simmer flame for about three-quarters of an hour.
To stuff six large potatoes, use two tablespoonsful of grated cheese, yolk of one egg, two tablespoonsful melted fat and seasoning.
To clean the mica in oil stoves, rub thoroughly with vinegar. If it does not remove the black allow to soak for a while.
To clean marble, make a solution of gum arabic and water, spread this on the marble and allow it to remain, until it dries. Then wash it off with all stains will come off with it.
Sometimes in oiling the edges of a floor oil will get on the rug. These unsightly spots can be removed by rubbing with gasoline. Use a clean cloth and rub each stain several times with the gasoline, using a clean portion of the cloth each time.

Watering Plants During Holidays.

Summer holidays and country week-ends bring with them the difficulty of keeping the house plants watered during the absence of the household. One way of doing this is to place the plants on a tray on the floor near a table on which stands a bucket of water. If strands of cotton or wool are now arranged so that one end dips into the water and the other into the soil, the tiny flow of water which results will keep the soil moist enough to preserve the plant, says an English gardener.

as they get hot the juice will come.

Then mash through wire strainer, and to each cup of strained berries add a half cup of sugar. Return to fire and boil 25 minutes. Remove the scum and stir occasionally. Pour into sterilized wide-mouthed bottles or glasses. Cover with paraffin or paper.

THE COMMON TOUCH.

(Doll, dolls' furniture, colored bricks and other playthings from the tomb of a little Roman girl of the time of Tiberius have just come in the possession of the Berlin museum.)

Little dead maid from the time of Tiberius. You have been sleeping so long with your toys.

You must have hushed them with whispering mysterious.

Shattered an empire, but left them at rest.

Down the long road that begins with your story.

We have peered wistfully into the gloom.

Watching the shadows of Rome and her glory.

Hearing the echoes of triumph and doom.

Yet, with your bricks and your dolls at bedtime.

You with the games of your dream summer while.

You are the bridge of the living and dead time.

Clio kneels down to your toys with a smile.

Strawberry Plummy.

1 box berries.
1 cup sugar.
1 tablespoon cornstarch.

Put the strawberries on with 1 cup of water, add sugar, boil slowly for 5 minutes; then add cornstarch, which has been mixed with a little cold water; boil 3 minutes, put in saucpan with tight lid, cover with drop dumplings. Cover saucpan and boil 10 minutes without removing cover. This is good either warm or cold. How to make dumplings:

1 cup flour.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
1-4 teaspoon salt.
1 teaspoon shortening.
1-4 cup milk.

Sift dry ingredients into bowl, add shortening, rub in very lightly, then add enough cold milk to make a stiff dough; divide into 8 parts and put on berries and boil 10 minutes with cover as stated above.

Canned Strawberries No. 1.

The berries should be ripe but firm; put into well-sterilized jars and fill with syrup made by boiling 2 cups of sugar with 3 cups of water slowly for 10 minutes; remove the scum. Let jars stand 15 minutes, then the hot syrup will have shrunk the berries; add more berries, adjust the rubbers which have been dipped into boiling water; then put on well-sterilized lid, fasten and put on boiler on rack; cover with boiling water one inch above tops of jars; cover the boiler and boil 30 minutes; remove, and when cold, put in cool, dark place. Be sure they do not leak.

Canned Strawberries No. 2.

Firm, ripe strawberries be put in preserving kettle and to each quart of berries (after hulling) add 1 cup of sugar; put a layer of berries, then a layer of sugar, only putting 3 quarts in the kettle at a time or they will be crushed. Let stand 30 minutes, then put over slow fire and boil slowly 35 minutes; skim well and fill into well-sterilized jars; adjust the rubbers which have been dipped into boiling water; then put on well-sterilized lid, fasten and put on boiler on rack; cover with boiling water 1 inch above tops of jars; cover the boiler and boil 30 minutes; remove, and when cold, put in cool, dark place. Be sure they do not leak. If there is too much syrup, put in bottle for future use.

Strawberry Jelly.

Put the strawberries into preserving kettle, mash with potato masher and bring to boil slowly; when soft mash through wire strainer, then strain through cheesecloth bag. Return to fire, boil 5 minutes and to each cup of fruit juice add 1 cup of sugar that has been warmed in oven. Stir until sugar is dissolved; then boil 5 to 10 minutes. Be sure all scum is carefully removed. Fill into glasses that have been dipped into boiling water. Cover with paper or paraffin.

It is important that the berries for jelly should not be too ripe. If berries are too ripe the jelly will not harden.

Strawberry Jam.

Put the strawberries in preserving kettle on very moderate fire until soft,
