

HENRY CLEWS & CO.

THE LEASE OF THE BOSTON & ALBANY BY THE NEW YORK CENTRAL.

Is Looked Upon as the First of Many Amalgamations to Do Away With Rivalry Competition—The Effect of the Senior Vanderbilt's Return.

New York, July 1.—The reported deal between the New York Central people and the managers of the Boston & Albany was in the main a surprise to the market, but produced only a temporary effect on prices. The significance of the transaction is somewhat of a mystery; and the effect that its meaning is only guessed at neutralises its effect on values. The unprecedented length of the lease, 99 years, and the guaranteeing of 5 per cent dividends on the stock for that period excite considerable comment, and it is not easy to conceive what reasons may have led to these extraordinary conditions. Among railroad capitalists the deal excites the least surprise, because the opinion has been gaining ground that there is no real remedy for destructive competition among the roads except through a series of consolidations that will create a series of amalgamated groups, and the severing lines connecting the Atlantic seaboard with the West. Discussion of this question has developed into a general plan of provincial federation of roads, embracing on the one hand the Erie, Delaware & Lackawanna and the Delaware & Hudson in alliance with the New York Central; and, on the other hand, an alliance of the Lehigh Valley & Reading companies in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Company; while the Baltimore & Ohio might unite its interests with the Southern combination of roads. These consolidations are not expected to be early achievements, nor do they seem to be prematurely forced, but to wait for convenient conditions for their consummation. But the scheme has gained such a firm position in the convictions of railroad men, that it is very naturally reasoned that Mr. W. K. Vanderbilt's reported acquisition is a first step in this direction, its object being to bring one of the principal New England lines into harmonious co-operation with the New York Central. There appears to be some reason to suppose that a similar arrangement is under contemplation between the Pennsylvania and the New York, New Haven & Hartford; which receives some plausibility from the supposed achievement effected in connection with the Boston & Albany. These are symptoms of a new drift in the railroad interest which cannot but attract attention. They are a striking light upon the horizon of a vast investment interest which has been long clouded by adverse conditions that have laboriously defied remedy. The issue may not have any immediate conspicuous effect upon the stock market large, but they introduce a new and very important fundamental factor among the influences giving stability to the trunk line securities and helping their advance to a permanent position among our permanent investments. The stock market this week has had an improving tendency with an important increase of commission buying, the strength and activity being mainly in the railroad properties. Satisfactory railroad earnings, more favorable crop reports, and the near-by payments of July dividends were the encouraging features. London buying was also a factor on the bull side, which was the means of reducing the sterling rate of exchange to a point indicating that gold exports have about culminated for the present at least. The return of the senior Vanderbilt from Europe, whose influence was at once exerted in advancing the properties of their railroad system, is due the credit of wrenching the market from the hands of the bear traders. The advance and strength of those stocks led to the belief, referred to above, that an important scheme of connection between the New York Central, the Boston & Albany and the Fitchburg roads is near at hand, from which New York Central will derive great benefit. While the Boston and Omaha may not be taken in on the same basis at present, owing to the fact that they are controlled by ownership a majority of the stock by the Vanderbilt family to all intents and purposes they are under the control of New York Central, and the same may be assumed in the case with Union Pacific, thus giving a direct and permanent system of transportation from the Atlantic to the Pacific under one centralized influence and policy of management. This means a great deal in upholding the various securities of the properties so represented, and the general market at the same time is materially benefited in tone thereby.

Lost in the Woods.

MACHIAS, Me., July 3.—Charles Day, aged 18, of Wesley, son of Samuel Day, has been missing three weeks, and it is feared that he lost his life in the woods in the northern part of the country, as he had been engaged to guide a man through to Dobs Lake. After Day had been absent about a week a searching party went through to the lake and learned that neither Day nor the stranger he had been seen. The trail of the man could not be found. Day, although young, was an expert in Woodcraft and trapping, and there was little danger of his becoming lost.

The New England Drought.

CONCORD, N. H., July 3.—Walter W. Flint, a voluntary weather observer, gives out some interesting figures as to the present phenomenal drier. During the month of June rain fell on eight days to the amount of 1.04 inches. The rainfall of June, 1898, was 3.10 inches; but the average of the last 43 June is 3.90 inches. The precipitation for May (.32 of an inch) is the smallest May precipitation on the records of the New England section of the weather bureau. The total precipitation for April, May, and June (2.55 inches), is barely more than half the smallest previous record. The greatest precipitation for those three months was 1887 (14.48 inches); in 1878 (13.95 inches); and in 1847 (14.06 inches). Before this year the smallest record was in 1869 (6.17 inches); in 1873 (4.99 inches); and in 1880 (5.67 inches). The average is 9.25 inches. The total precipitation of the year thus far is 15.33 inches. That of the first six months of 1898 was 20.30 inches. The average is 18.45 inches.

Grand Lodge Meeting.

TORONTO, July 3.—The attempt of the Scandinavian lodge of Illinois to secure a grand lodge charter, which has been opposed by other representatives of Illinois, was defeated in the supreme lodge of Good Templars today, after a warm discussion, by a vote of 75 to 48, the necessary two-third vote not being secured.

A Member of Parliament's View.

LONDON, July 3.—In the house of commons today during the debate on the second reading of the military works bill, Mr. John Dillon, Nationalist, objected to the expenditure on the defense of Halifax and Bermuda, adding that he firmly believed all the West Indian islands were soon to belong to the United States as the inevitable result of the recent war. The inhabitants of the British West Indies, Mr. Dillon said, would find they must necessarily join the United States, since nature intended those islands to form part of the United States. "The people of the islands will ultimately say so," declared the Irish statesman, "and Englishmen would not be so foolish as to resist it."

The Peace Conference.

THE HAGUE, July 3.—The drafting committee of the arbitration convention of the peace conference passed the second reading of Sir Julian Pauncefote's scheme for a permanent court of arbitration today and then took up the Russian scheme, which is now entitled "The Law of Arbitration and Disputes Therein." Sir Julian Pauncefote's scheme was so amended as to permit the powers wishing to take advantage of it to propose four names for judges and also to permit the foreign powers at the Hague to replace the permanent council of arbitrators suggested in the proposal of the head of the British delegation. At the suggestion of M. Leon Bourgeois, head of the French delegation, a drafting committee, decided that, in the event of a dispute, it should be the duty of neutral powers to call attention to the dispute and to the existence of the permanent court of arbitration.

Treaty of Peace Ratified.

MADRID, July 3.—The Spanish senate resumed today the discussion of the treaty of peace between the Kingdom of Spain and the United States. Senator Montero Rios, president of the Spanish senate, declared that he was convinced that Spain would enjoy the same commercial rights in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines as would be enjoyed by the United States. He pointed out that the treaty was based upon the principle that Spain had relinquished sovereignty over Cuba in order that the island should become independent, and not be annexed to the United States. The senate ratified the treaty and adjourned.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

BOTH PARTIES ARE BEGINNING TO LOOK FOR PROROGATION.

Morning Sittings of the House May Be Held Next Week—Discussion on the Prevention of Tuberculosis—Last of the Estimates Passed.

OTTAWA, June 30.—The debate on the Yukon charges closed at 3.45 p. m. The vote stood 32 for Sir C. H. Tupper's resolution and 82 against, a majority of 50 for the government. Messrs. Richardson, Oliver and Melness voted for Tupper, and Messrs. Costigan, Stubb and Rogers, who are included in the list of independents, voted for the government. At the opening of the house today there was a brief discussion as to the probability of an early prorogation. It arose on moving a notice of motion providing that until the end of the session government business should have precedence.

Sir Charles Tupper said he was sorry to see this step taken towards bringing government business to a halt. He denied to the newspaper report that he was booked to sail for Europe early in August. Though he did not expect to leave his house until the premier did, the earlier prorogation could be brought about the more suitable it would be to him. Mr. Britton asked if the premier could give any idea of the probable date of prorogation. The premier could say that no business would be brought down except the supplementary estimates and the senate reform resolution. He suggested that some time next week morning sittings of the house might be held. The premier, in answer to another question, stated he would make an announcement on Monday of the government's decision with regard to the proposed further restriction Chinese immigration.

On motion to go into supply Dr. Roddick called attention to the necessity for government action in the direction of more effectively coping with tuberculosis. Most of the medical men in the house took part in the discussion. There was a consensus of opinion that a great necessity existed for action to stamp out tuberculosis and that most of the cases of the disease were due to infection from other human beings and directed to the lungs. Dr. Rutherford made a very interesting address, stating that almost all tuberculosis was due to impure milk. Dr. Spruce said that the Donkeybush might be rotten with the disease. The minister of agriculture agreed with most of those who took part in the discussion, and stated that the health of the country was essentially in the sphere of provincial jurisdiction. He said he expected to send a commission to the Donkeybush, headed by Dr. Carrill, of Halifax, who had been sent by the government to the tuberculosis congress in Berlin, Germany.

Mr. Roddick's motion was supported by the supplementary vote of 22,000 of the Yukon forces of his own up, and in connection with it the minister of militia claimed the presence of the troops did much to prevent any outbreak of lawlessness in the country. He said in reply to Mr. Foster, that it cost $255,000 for the transportation of troops, arms and $400,000 worth of provisions. The minister of militia said the contract for the transportation of the military troops supplies from Telegraph to Teelin was made with the Hudson Bay Company, and he said that the company had returned for all the expenditures and given 20 per cent on their expenditure for work done by this company made $21,900 in about 90 days. The house adjourned at midnight, after putting through supplementary estimates for the current fiscal year.

OTTAWA, July 3.—There was a pleasant change in the atmosphere of the house today when the presentation of a handsome bouquet to Sir Charles Tupper to mark his 78th birthday. The bouquet was brought in by a messenger and handed to the leader of the opposition amidst loud applause. The speaker on the leader of the house congratulated Sir Charles upon his birthday. While replying to an enquiry put by Col. Prior, the premier responded by a felicitous reference to Sir Charles' birthday.

Col. Prior's question concerned a newspaper report that Mr. Maxwell, M. P., was to be appointed postmaster of Vancouver. The premier said Col. Prior need have no fear about Mr. Maxwell. There had been no suggestion of an appointment for Mr. Maxwell and he hoped the honorable gentleman would be long left to adorn the house. The house adjourned at midnight, after putting through supplementary estimates for the current fiscal year.

Most of the afternoon was devoted to concurrences with regard to supplementary estimates for '98-'99 and quite a number of items of the main estimates for 1899-1900. As soon as the concurrence was completed the house went into committee on the government bill to amend the insurance act. The bill was thoroughly thrashed out by the committee on banking and commerce and it went through rapidly. Mr. Foster called attention to the danger of allowing investment in railway stock, much of which is of very little value. The clause was allowed to stand over. Mr. Foster in a momentary will endeavor to draw a substitute clause. The bill to amend the Dominion lands act in regard to giving scrip to half-breeds passed through committee, and was reported, as was also two other bills of Hon. Mr. Sifton.

The bill authorizing the governor general in council to make regulations pertaining to the export of furs, which is at present prohibited, was put through committee. Considerable opposition to it came from Ontario opposition members' snail above. That is the Ontario generally authorized, as far as it could, the export of furs by license holders. Mr. Ellis, in supporting the bill, said it was desirable to object allowing a foreigner who was licensed to shoot a deer taking home the game he had shot. The minister of provinces announced foreign sportsmen to come into the country, where they spent money. If the provinces allowed it he did not see why the Dominion should prevent it. The house adjourned at 12.30 p. m.

The London Mail Defends What the United States Has Done in the Philippines and Wants the Task Completed.

LONDON, June 27.—The Daily Mail this morning, under the heading, "Americans and Their Critics," discusses the situation in the Philippines, and says editorially: "The news that the American army in the Philippines has secured a great victory over the Filipino resistance. The United States government has determined to make a prompt ending of the insurgent Filipino resistance. The United States government has determined to make a prompt ending of the insurgent Filipino resistance. The United States government has determined to make a prompt ending of the insurgent Filipino resistance."

"The experience of France in Madagascar, and our own experience in pacifying Burma, recall to our minds the fact which has been forgotten on the continent, that this kind of war is always a tedious and unprofitable one. It is curious that Aguinaldo does not realize the complete futility of the game he is playing. The Tagals, whom he leads, are only one out of 30 distinct tribes in the archipelago, and represent native victory would mean civil war. The United States government has determined to make a prompt ending of the insurgent Filipino resistance. MORE EMPTY CHARGES.

NOTHING PROVEN AGAINST WADE, McGREGOR AND NORWOOD.

On the Contrary Commissioner Ogilvie's Report Shows Them Entirely Innocent—The Klondike Nugget Has Gone Back on Sir Hibbert.

OTTAWA, July 3.—Hon. Mr. Sifton received today Commissioner Ogilvie's report on the cases of F. C. Wade, J. D. McGregor and W. H. Norwood.

None of the charges were sustained, and all the officials were honorably acquitted of any wrongdoing. The Klondike Nugget, which came by the same mail, gives a summary of the case. Its articles headed "Not Guilty," "Convicting Statements of Defendants," "No Connection Shows." When Mr. Clark of Clark & Wilson, appeared for the defendants the counsel asked for a list of the charges and Commissioner Ogilvie replied that there was no definite charge, but that Dr. Burke, in a rambling way, brought in everything. Alexander Morrison, who with Alex. McDonald had leased the water front, swore that he had no knowledge of any interest that accrued to Mr. Wade from the lease obtained from the government. The witness never gave a dollar to Wade in that connection. After the lease was obtained Mr. Wade was retained by the firm and got a fee in proportion to the services required of him. Wade would not accept anything for drawing up the lease. Witness swore that the retaining of Wade as solicitor and the leasing of the water front had no connection. He went personally to Wade and secured his services, and never mentioned anything about the water front. Witness knew nothing of any payment to McGregor.

Alex. McDonald swore that he had no conversation with Wade before leasing the water front, and he was positive that none of his money ever went to Wade for that purpose. No money was paid to any official in this connection. Mr. Wade went on the stand and was sworn. The Nugget says that his statements were "clear, concise and convincing, and in justice to that gentleman it is to be regretted that our space forbids its reproduction." He swore that he had not received anything from the water front lease. McGregor also swore that he had no connection with it either directly or indirectly.

D. W. Davis, collector of customs and ex-M. P. for Alberta, gave evidence in regard to Sir Hibbert Tupper's charge that salmon keepers and gamblers were blackmailing. Davis said that he had Wade appointed to get up subscriptions for Father Judge's hospital in Victoria. He was a bad way. They collected $4,000 from salmon keepers and gamblers, who were escaping taxation and turned the money over to Father Judge. Wade gave similar testimony. Some other cases were gone into. Norwood cleared himself completely of any wrong.

Commissioner Ogilvie regretted to have wasted a whole day on so flimsy charges and congratulated the officials on making so good a showing, at the same time honorably acquitting them. This from the Nugget, whose proprietors are pleased with the leaders of the opposition during the early part of this session trying to work up a scandal against the officials of the department is perhaps the most fitting rebuke that Tupper and company could receive.
