MINING NOTES.

Big Five Brick of $2,200—The Olive Mine—Bear Gulch Deal—Good Gold King Reports.

Big Five.

The last brick that was received from Big Five Mining Company amounted to $2,200. Work is being pushed vigorously on the Big Five as well as on Jubilee and everything looks very promising in connection with these mines. The books and management of the company are now in hands of St. John stockholders.

Olive.

Advices from Toronto state that it was rumored that Mr. Foster's visit to the old country was on account of the Olive mine. Apparently Mr. Foster was not able to do anything in the London market, as the stock has been selling lately at 105 cents. It is also reported that the mine has been closed down for the present, owing to there being no funds in the treasury, and a fair sized debt.

Bear Gulch.

It was reported on the street lately that Captain Rizka, who has been visiting Boston capitalists in the interest of the Bear Gulch stockholders, is now in Chicago on his way out west before closing the deal for this mine. It is understood that the mine has been closed down for the present, owing to there being no funds in the treasury, and a fair sized debt.

Gold King.

Reports received from Gold King Consolidated Mines Company are of a very pleasing nature indeed. They are working their mill to the fullest capacity, and are turning out 20 tons output per day. If nothing occurs to hamper these operations in the near future, it is thought that the quarterly dividend, which will be due and payable on the first of April, will be increased this year.
