Two deer were received Saturday morning, making the total for the season to date, nineteen deer. Something not seen very often in Bangor was received Saturday, from Newcastle (N. B.), a caribou head to be stuffed. Caribou are very plentiful and New Brunswick now, in direct contrast to the conditions that prevail in Maine. The caribou head was accompanied by a moose head and antlers.—Portland Express.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD MEETS IN SYDNEY

Many Live Subjects Dealt With—Maritime Body to Meet in Moncton Next Year.

Sydney, Oct 8—Bright, genial weather has contributed largely to the enjoyment and pleasure of the clergy and elders who are in Sydney as delegates to the Maritime Presbyterian Synod now being held here.

The subjects of the working of Sunday schools; and of societies for the welfare of the young people, marked the attention of the assembly in the morning. In the afternoon social reform and evangelism principally occupied the attention while the concluding report on augmentation was also received.

At the evening sabbath school missions and church budget were dealt with in the real meaning of the word, by a little Stillingia, Iodide of Potassium, Poke Root, Guaiac Resin and Sarsaparilla.

TWO MORE ARRESTS IN SYDNEY MYSTERY

Brother-in-Law and Widow of Atkinson Charged With Complicity in His Death.

Sydney, Oct 7—As a result of the visit of Detective Hanrahan, of Halifax, to this city, warrants were issued this morning for the arrest of William Madigan, brother-in-law to the late B. S. Atkinson, who was found dead August 18 last on Mira road and Mrs. Atkinson, widow of the dead man.

Detective Hanrahan laid the information before Stipendiary W. R. Hearn this morning and the warrants were secured this afternoon. The charge against Mrs. Atkinson is complicity, accessory before the fact and accomplice. The same charge is made against Mr. Madigan. The warrants mark a sensation in the case. Ever since the tragedy on Mira road, the investigation was started, interest in the case has been rife.
