Sir John Macdonald's Case—A Flat Denial of the Charges—Argument of Counsel—Reservation of Judgment.

OTTAWA, Nov. 19.

In the Kingston election case Sir John Macdonald occupied the witness box all yesterday. No evidence of personal bribery was elicited from him. Before leaving the box he said he did not directly or indirectly sanction or approve the spending of any money for bribery, nor did he promise any.

Bethune, petitioner's counsel, afterwards addressed the court, arguing that the respondent should be disqualified notwithstanding there was no special act of personal bribery proven against the respondent. Bribery by agents, he thought, was sufficient to disqualify him.

Walkem, for Sir John, argued that it was not shown that any of the money placed in the hands of the respondent's agents had been used for improper purposes. He asked the case to be dismissed, the petitioner paying costs.

His Lordship reserved judgement until Friday afternoon.

(Special to Daily News.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 18.

In the Kingston election case Sir John has occupied the witness box since the opening of the Court this morning, but up to a late hour nothing to substantiate the charge of personal bribery was elicited. It is said that over one hundred and fifty witnesses will be examined.

The Orangemen of Bowmanville have passed a resolution protesting against any commutation of Lepine's sentence.

In the Chambly election case, the charge of personal bribery has been withdrawn.

In the contested election cases of Bagot, L'Assumption and Two Mountains, the petitions have been withdrawn.

Tenders for 3000 tons of railroad iron have been opened, but the contracts are not yet awarded.

Hallowe'en was celebrated at Balmoral on the night of November 2 in a very extraordinary manner. There was first a torchlight procession, in which Queen Victoria and Princess Beatrice took part, and afterward in front of the castle a huge bonfire was lighted. A hobgoblin approached drawing a car containing the effigy of a witch, and surrounded by fairies carrying long spears. A magic circle was formed, and the presiding elf tossed the effigy into the flames, after which the numerous company vigorously danced Scotch reels to the strains of a bagpipe. It was intended to have a ball in the castle, but as some of the company at the bonfire behaved themselves rather indecorously this part of the celebration was abandoned.

BOSTON

MARINE INSURANCE

COMPANY.

WE beg to call your attention to some of the advantages offered by this Company in

Marine Insurance.

The fact that the business of Marine and Fire Insurance should be disconnected was fully demonstrated by the great Chicago and Boston fires, as a large number of Insurance Companies doing a mixed Fire and Marine business, were rendered insolvent by those overwhelming calamities, subjecting holders of Marine Policies to a great loss and inconvenience.

In recognition of this fact the Boston Marine Insurance Company was organized as a strictly Marine Company. Its Stockholders and Directors are mostly ship owners, and comprise some of the most successful business men in New England.

Its capital is THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, all of which is PAID IN CASH.

And invested in the most conservative securities, while assets of the Company at the present time amount to a sum exceeding

Four Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars.

The Company intend to pursue a conservative course, writing on the safer classes of shipping, and aiming to maintain a thoroughly sound Institution; at the same time, it issues a more liberal policy than any other Boston Company, and it gives the assured all the privileges that can be consistently granted.

The premium receipts have averaged more than One Thousand Dollars per day since the organization of the Company (exceeding that of any other Marine Stock Company in New England) with a record of loss, thus far, equally gratifying to the management. The Company has no losses due and unpaid.

CHILD OF THE TIDE. By Mrs. E. D. CHENEY, author of "The Mountain Girl." 16mo. Illustrated. $1.50.

The scene of the present story is laid in the vicinity of St. John, N. B, and is founded on some facts in experience of a gentleman occupying a prominent social position in that city. It thus possesses the charm of being to some extent at least, a record of actual events, and the book is consequently regarded with lively appeals to the sympathetic interest of the reader.

THE

ILLUSTRATED LIBRARY

—OF—

POETRY AND SONG:

Edited by

DR. J. G. HOLLAND,

Author of "Kathrina," "Bi ter Sweet," etc.

FAVORITE SONG is a royal octave volume of over 700 PAGES, printed in the best style of the art, on the finest tinted paper, and illustrated with 125 thoroughly dainty and delicate engravings, FROM ORIGINAL DESIGNS, by the most eminent artists, together with fac similes of the original autograph copies of (20) famous poems.

The illustrations are numerous and exquisitely wrought. What can be more beautiful than the one which reflects the enchanting spot where—

"Maud Muller, on a summer's day,
Raked the meadows sweet with hay."

One of those lovely New England landscapes, which the engraver has represented in outlines as beautiful and artistic as the song it adorns.

Conspicuous, also, for its rare beauty, is the illustration accompanying the "Song of the Brook," where the streamlet, dashing beneath the rustic bridge, goes chattering

"Over stony ways,
In little sharps and trebles,"

"Till lost by Philip's farm it flows,
To join the brimming river."

Altogether, this is one of the most charming and elegant books ever issued by the American press—a fitting gift for lover or friend; an attractive ornament for the parlor table; a valuable addition to any family library.
