"I should just like to see somebody try to abduct me," said Mrs. Smith at the breakfast table the other morning. "H'm! so should I, my dear—so should I," said Mr. Smith, with exceeding earnestness.

Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam should always be kept at hand in case of cough, colds, and other throat and lung troubles.

A Scotchman and an Englishman were disputing as to which of their respective countries had produced the most eminent men. Every name was claimed by the Scotchman as that of a man who had been born north of the Tweed, till finally the Englishman said, "Surely you won't claim Shakespeare as a Scotchman." The canny Scot replied, "Well, if Shakespeare was a Scotsman, he was clever enough to be ane."

Do as your conscience dictates and you will not go far astray.

How to get fat—go to the butchers.

BALTON, Dec. 30, 1878.

MESSRS. MILBURN, BENTLEY & FRARSON.

GENTLEMEN—I take great pleasure in giving testimony in favour of Victoria Syrup of Hypophosphites. I have been selling it for the past two years, and my customers all speak very highly of it. Many permanent results from its use have come under my notice. I can with perfect confidence recommend it to those requiring a remedy for nervous complaints, general debility, weak lungs, &c.

S. J. SNELL, Druggist.

If Noah had foreseen the future, and killed the two mosquitoes which took refuge in the ark, he would have rendered some of the strongest words in the English language unnecessary.

A clock records time with its hands, but a regiment marks time with its feet.
