

THE DWINDLING OF PRIZE-MONEY

ONLY A FEW HUNDREDS NOW AWARDED TO H. M. SHIPS.

Enormous Were the Sums Shared by the Navy Some Hundred Odd Years Ago.

Prize-money, the oldest of naval perquisites, has dwindled woefully. How uninspiring seem the few hundreds now awarded to H. M. ships for destroying the enemy in comparison with the great, big, glittering hauls which our sailors in the tough days of cutlass and boarding-pike used to wrest from the enemy!

Vastly different was it some hundred odd years ago when a successful cruise made men rich and a fortune could be won in a day. Not a mere phrase this, but a thing that often happened.

A notable case of the kind was that of the Triton, frigate, which captured the Spanish Santa Brigida on October 17th, 1799, and thereby won for her crew a million and a half dollars. As a result of that one brief fight the Triton's captain pocketed $203,650, whilst her seamen received $910 each. A mere trifle contrasted with the captain's share, but a good day's earnings nevertheless.

Favored Officers. The explanation of the rich yield was that the Spaniard had a lot of money aboard her. Because there existed no such arrangements as our foreign exchanges, every sort of valuable had to be conveyed from one country to another by ship, if land frontiers did not join. That gave our tars their chance, and they were never slow in taking it. Prize-money was one of the things they went to sea after, and they piled it up in heaps.

A mere $100,000, the Portland's booty from a hard won fight, seems beggarly alongside the $300,000 acquired by the Panther by the same means, and ridiculously inadequate when placed by the Ethalion's $1,500,000 dollars wrenched from a Spaniard in a few blood-bespattered hours.

From the lower-deck point of view, the worst feature about these hauls was the unfair system of sharing out. For example, when our forces captured Havana in 1762, out of the treasure taken each admiral and general present received $613,485, whilst poor Jack had to be content with $20, not enough for a brief shore jollification.

Remunerative Dream. Much more fortunate were the seamen of the Favorite and the Active, which in the same year captured a tremendously valuable prize. When she was unloaded the merchandise and specie found in her holds filled twenty wagons, which were sent in triumphal procession to London, and the goods there disposed of. Enough was realized by the sale to pay each captain $324,360, each commissioned officer $64,870, and each seaman $2,420.

We have all heard of dreams that led to fortune. Here is one of the most curious, yet a well-authenticated instance of such a happening. In 1799 the Alcemene was at sea, with her luck dead out. Not a doubt in prize-money, not even the pleasure of a fight, had come her way, and the crew were almost mutinous with disappointment, when the captain began nightly to dream that someone came into his cabin and implored, "Go northward, Digby, go northward." So impressed did he become by this that at last he decided he would "go northward," though his officers protested. But on the evening of the first day he altered course Captain Digby fell in with a Spanish ship, from which he took a huge booty.

Settled Out of Court. In the gallant West Court and in the maritime courts generally, many a family was founded and the nucleus of many a snug estate acquired by prize-money won at sea. The sea, in fact, was the place where our forefathers in these parts were for generations taught that they must look for fortune. They did so, and found it so often that every encouragement was given for the quest to proceed.

Even then men who fought were impatient of the ways of men who sat in offices and protracted suits; also they had small liking for lawyers, and this resulted in some curious things being done. One bluff old captain having captured a valuable Spanish ship, declared that he did not mean to waste time fooling about with Admiralty delays, he was too busy. So he took the ship and cargo into Batavia and sold them to the Dutch for over $4,500,000. Then, standing by the captain, he called his crew around him and shared out the money amongst them.

Learn to Laugh. "Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine. Learn to tell a story. A well-told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick room. Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your ills or sorrows. Learn to do something for others every day. This is no time for idle hands."

A SOLDIER'S PRAYER.

Not more of courage, Lord, I seek,
But faith that comes from Thee.
No greater strength, but how to use
What Thou hast given me.
Not more of joy, but just to feel
Thy gracious presence near,
That I may give to others, Lord,
All that I can of cheer.
Give me all fear to dominate,
All goodly things to know,
To be the friend I long to be,
And truth to others show;
To love the pure, to seek the good,
To strive with all my might
To win the cause of brotherhood,
When things shall be set right.
I thank Thee for the precious gifts,
The joy that I possess,
The skill to do Thy holy will,
The power to bless others.

NERVOUS TROUBLE

The nerve system is the governing system of the whole body, controlling the heart, lungs, digestion and brain; so it is not surprising that nervous disturbances should cause acute distress. The first stages of nervous debility are noted by irritability and restlessness, in which the victims seem to be oppressed by their nerves. The matter requires immediate attention, for nothing but suitable treatment will prevent a complete breakdown. The victim, however, need not despair, for even severe nervous disorders may be cured by improving the condition of the blood. It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new, rich blood that this medicine has cured extreme nervous disorders after all other treatment had failed. The nerves thrive on the new blood made by these pills; the appetite improves, digestion is better, sleeplessness no longer troubles the former nerve-shattered victim, and life generally takes on a cheerful aspect. Every sufferer from nerve troubles, no matter how slight, should lose no time in giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial, thus regaining their old-time health and comfort.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PRESERVE EGGS NOW.

Best Method is Here Given by the Dominion Chemist.

The indications are that eggs will be dear next winter, dearer than they were last winter, so those who want eggs had better put some down now while they are comparatively cheap. Do not use oats, bran, salt or such mediums; moreover, the patent preservatives usually advertised as being so simple and effective had better be adopted with caution. Better use something that has been tried and found satisfactory.

According to Dr. Frank T. Shutt, Dominion Chemist, lime water is one of the best preservatives and we quote the following from his Exhibition Circular No. 42.

The method of preparation is simply to slake one pound good quick lime with a small quantity of water and then stir the milk of lime so formed into 5 gallons of water. After the mixture has been kept well stirred for a few hours it is allowed to settle. The supernatant liquid, which is now "saturated" lime-water, is drawn off and poured over the eggs, previously placed in a crock or water-tight barrel.

As exposure to the air tends to precipitate the lime (as carbonate), and thus to weaken the solution, the vessel containing the eggs should be kept covered. The air may be excluded by a covering of sweet oil, or by sucking upon which a paste of lime is spread. If, after a time, there is any noticeable precipitation of the lime, the lime-water should be drawn or siphoned off and replaced with a further quantity newly prepared.

It is essential that attention be paid to the following points:

1. That perfectly fresh eggs only be used.
2. That the eggs should throughout the whole period of preservation be completely immersed.

BABY'S OWN TABLETS PRIZED BY MOTHERS

Mrs. Henry Vanreder, Rodney, Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past five years and prize them very much. They have proved of such value to me that I always keep them in the house." Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets she would use nothing else. They are thorough but mild in action and never fail to make the sickly baby well. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Drugs Are High-Priced.

Most of our drugs come to us from France, Belgium, Germany and England. In France and Belgium, where the largest drug farms in the world existed, the farms are now in ruin. They have not only been neglected, but have been literally trampled out of existence. In England the drug farms have been converted into vegetable farms. There the situation is less hopeless. The land is still in cultivation, and can be planted with drugs whenever it seems practical. So after the war England in a short time—probably two years—will again be exporting drugs in normal quantities.

650 Miles By Airship.

In a trial trip, at Norfolk, Va., Major Lopez, of the Italian flying corps, remained in the air for eight hours, carrying 11 passengers, and covered about 650 miles. The passengers were recruits to the aviation corps and the trip was made over land and water. The distance covered during the trial would equal that from Norfolk to Boston.

Airmen Feel Color of Field.

A curious phenomenon noted by aviators is that the color of a landing field may have an effect on an airplane that is about to alight on it. For example, an area which is dark from being plowed or burned over will make the air above it several degrees warmer than that over land of lighter color, such as a stubble field, thus causing a disturbed condition of the atmosphere, which may make landing difficult if not dangerous.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Fulton, N. Y.—"Why will women pay out their money for treatment and receive no benefit, when so many have proved that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will make them well? For over a year I suffered so from female weakness I could hardly stand and was afraid to go on the street alone. Doctors said medicines were useless and only an operation would help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved it otherwise. I am now perfectly well and can do any kind of work."—Mrs. NELLIE PHELPS, care of R. A. Rider, R.F.D. No. 5, Fulton, N. Y.

We wish every woman who suffers from female troubles, nervousness, backache or the blues could see the letters written by women made well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

When summer died she left to thee
A hue from noontide skies,
The glamour sweet of dear dead days,
The last look from her eyes.

Dumb now the birds, and her dim
green woods
Forget her very name,
And flaunt above her silent grave
Their garb of crimson flame.

While thou alone, O true, brave flower,
Art left of legions lost,
And steadfast still thy burning blue
Defies the creeping frost.

City Eye Specialists Tell How To Strengthen Eyesight 50% In a Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Boston, Mass.—Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that Doctors and Eye Specialists now agree there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One man says, after using it: "I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without my glasses, and my eyes do not hurt my nose. Tell me, might they not have been a miracle to me?"

A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses.
