Mrs Bertaux's Remedy for Erysipelas.

THE following testimonial in favour of the efficacy of this remedy has been received from William Caldwell Esq., Mayor of the City of Halifax, and is published for the benefit of those who may be similarly afflicted.

To John Naylor Esq., Sir.—The cause of suffering humanity demands, I think, that every one who knows of any thing that will afford relief, ought to make it public.

IN March last, my wife was attacked with that dreadful disease, Erysipelas, in her leg. It inflamed and swelled to an alarming size, causing excruciating pain, rendering it impossible for her to put her foot to the floor, and was fast advancing upwards.
