

All Acts remedial, and to be construed as such.

enactment thereof, shall be deemed remedial, whether its immediate purport is to direct the doing of any thing which Parliament deems to be for the public good, or to prevent or punish the doing of any thing which it deems contrary to the public good—and shall accordingly receive such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as will best ensure the attainment of the object of the Act and of such provision or enactment, according to its true intent, meaning and spirit:

Application of rules of construction not excluded.

(60). Nothing in this section shall exclude the application to any Act, of any rule of construction applicable thereto, and not inconsistent with this section:
