

An Act to amend An "Act respecting Barristers-at-Law."

HER Majesty, &c., enacts as follows:—

Preamble.

Certain provisions of C. 34 of Con. Stat. U. C. not to apply to students admitted after 1st March 1860.

1. The provisions of the second sub-section of the first section of the thirty-fourth chapter of the Consolidated Statutes for Upper Canada, intituled "An Act respecting Barristers-at-Law," shall not apply to any person or persons who may have been from and after the first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, or may at any time after that period be admitted into the Law Society of Upper Canada, and stand on the Books of the said Society as a Student of Laws.

2. The following section shall be taken and read as an additional subsection to the the said first section of the said Act:—"Any person who, subsequently to the first day of March, in the year eighteen hundred and sixty, has been or who may at any time after that period be admitted into and stand on the Books of the Law Society for Upper Canada as a Student of Laws for three years, and has conformed himself to the Rules of the said Society, and has, prior to the date of his admission to the said Society and to the Books of the said Society as a Student, actually taken and had conferred upon him the Degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Law in any of the Universities of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any University or College in Upper Canada, having power to grant Degrees, may be admitted to practise at the Bar in Her Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity in Upper Canada."

Addition to Sect. 1 of C. 34. Such students may on certain conditions, be admitted after three years study.