

PIMPLES Are an "EYE SORE."

Pimples are caused by the blood being out of order. Those little festering sores appear on the forehead, on the nose, on the chin and other parts of the body, and although they are not a dangerous trouble they are very unsightly to both you and your friends.

There is only one way to get rid of them, and that is to purify the blood. Burdock Blood Bitters is without a doubt the best remedy on the market for this purpose.

Wm. F. Donohue, Jr., Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"About six months ago my little son's face was literally covered with pimples. I tried every preparation I was told of by my friends, but to no avail. Soon I thought I could not have them fixed up, and would have to wait, and let him grow out of them, but thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters they are all gone, and I gladly recommend it to anyone."

Burdock Blood Bitters is manufactured solely by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A Work of Love

We are working a work of love;
We have vowed a sacred vow;
We have given our strength to break the power

That makes our country bow;
Our country, free and mighty,
Our hearts are sore to see
The subtle evil sap her strength
And mock her liberty.

Abroad, her foes she conquers—

At home her sons are slaves;

At home, she serves a tyrant—

Abroad, she rules the waves!

It is true, "No fortress,

However manned and strong,

Is stronger than its weakest point,"

Can strength to her belong?

The foe within our borders

Has many a snare and line,

And many a secret lurking place;

From many a well-planned mine;

His banner floateth free;

Oh, Brothers, Britons, Christians!

Ought these things so to be?

Come ye, and join the battle!

Come and take up the sword;

What if the careless mock us?

They mocked our King, our Lord!

Look at the tyrant's triumphs;

Mark ye his blood-stained crown;

Look at his deadly palaces,

And vow they shall come down.

If ye look at strong men ruined,

Body, and mind, and soul,

And say they chose their own mad race,

And have but reached the goal;

If ye say they are but reaping,

Albeit with tear and groan,

The evil fruit of the evil seed

That their own hands have sown

If ye look at grief-worn women,

And say they do but bear

Their own appointed portion

Of this world's pain and care—

Yet, pity the little children—

If ye have not hearts of stone—

Condemned to tread an evil path

For no fault of their own;

Trained in the tongue of curses,

Breathing the breath of sin,

In homes where hardly a gleam of day

Or of truth can enter in.

Oh fathers, mothers, round whose knees

Sweet little children cling,

For the sake of the little children,

Rise up against this thing!

—National Good Templar.

A Mighty Influence

The story is told of a young English nobleman who rode up and down the street one day, in a village of Cornwall, seeking a public-house which would furnish him with a nice drink of liquor. Not finding what he wanted, and meeting a grey-haired peasant returning home after a day of toil, in angry tones he asked him: "Why is it that I cannot get a glass of liquor in this wretched little village?" The old man recognized him as a nobleman, and lifting his cap humbly replied: "My lord, about a hundred years ago a man named John Wesley came to these parts." And the old peasant walked on homeward.
