“ WE FOUND A HOME . . . ”

The Brunswickan, in pursuing its inquiries into the accommodations' question, this week assigned reporters Gord Mockler and John Drew to investigate rumours regarding a centrally-located, low-rental block. This is their story:

We have uncovered the greatest scandal in years. In spite of Carol MacPherson's article last week on accommodation problems downtown, we can announce that they no longer exist. We have found one block of apartments where there are nine double rooms simply furnished, not being let out on any regular basis at all! The rooms (at least 6 x 5 feet) are most attractively painted and simply furnished. Three walls are painted in two-tone coloring (yellow and gray) whilst the fourth wall provides an interesting experiment in a new iron bars ventilation system. Fine murals, mainly in ancient Canadian hieroglyphics, and verse, equal to any Restoration Vulgarities, cover the walls. Each room is provided with its own toilet though airwick's deodorization plan does not appear to have reached these parts yet. Lights are bracketed in an attractive Olde English style. The landlords serve adequate breakfasts.

During our stay we had egg sandwiches, cookies and tea (sugarless) served in decorative green beer bottles.

This accommodation is located centrally in Queen Square and is a mere four minutes by black maria from the campus. The block is quite silent (except for the occasional clanging of a gate) and ideal for study. The landlords are only too anxious to have UNB students filling these rooms. Local citizens whole-heartedly support the project.

So, students, it's up to you. Put on those distinctive red and black jackets, go downtown right now and you'll find them waiting for you with open doors.

Letters to the Editor

Voice of Resentment

Dear Sir:

Now just a second! There seems to be something other than chimes issuing from our local clock tower. Right this minute we are made aware of the presence of a questionable faction that is contaminating our campus with harmful intellectual germs. Those types, the instigators of "Canada's Oddest Student Publication", laughingly refer to themselves as the Jones Boys. The hour has come, let's face it, your time is up. The wheels of justice are about to spring to the aid of the rightful owners of that hallowed name. No cause for alarm, no reason to get all wound up, the change is inevitable. All our residents, both past and present, are the main-springs of this movement. Beware clock tower inmates, all the ticking and tocking you do will be to no avail. In the bright future when, again, only chimes peel from our clock tower we know for whom the bells toll—the Jones Boys from Jones House. "The Jones Boys"

Executive Meeting

Ted Boswell, President of the SRC, has requested that all representatives of the various student organizations on campus responsible to the SRC meet with him next Tuesday, October 20, in the Tartan Room of the Student Centre at 5 pm.

NOMINATIONS DUE

All nominations for positions open on the SRC close tomorrow at noon. These nominations must be in writing and handed in to the President or Secretary of the SRC. The fall elections will be held Wednesday, October 28.

Girls wouldn't usually come in after curfew at night if boys didn't make them.

Cheque Found, More Waiting

Looking for a letter from home . . . the girl friend . . . your stock broker?

It may be gathering dust in the Arts Building basement. Directly beneath the building's Great Hall are located the alphabetically marked, pigeon-holed style mailboxes. Across the hall is a post office, open all day.

One can see letters, pamphlets, returned assignments and magazines piling up in the pigeon-holes day after day.

Why, a report to The Brunswickan tells of one chap fumbling through the mail in his pigeon-hole and coming up with a cheque which had been sitting there for two weeks.

Your "salary" may be lying there too.
