Moncton, Sept. 17, 1925.

H.H. Stevens, Esq.,
Vancouver, B.C.

Dear Harry:

Following is extract of a letter I have received from L.G. McPhillips:

"I am very glad to see that things seem to be running your way, and from many people whom I have spoken to who have travelled across the continent I gather the West does not seem to be as strongly against you as you thought it would be. However, it is particularly evident here that Mr. Stevens must be just as strong on freight rates as McGee or he will stand a chance of being defeated. The people here are feeling just as strong as they ever did."

Yours very truly,
