My dear Stevenson,

I have your letter of the 14th. Have already written to Mr. Woods of the Calgary Herald. I think I will await reply from him before pursuing the matter further. This course I adopt as most likely to get the wedge entered. I feel quite confident of a favourable reception from Mr. Woods.

I am sending for the Economist to which you refer today and I am glad of a chance to read Mr. Leighton's articles.

As to the tone of Conservative speeches I entirely agree with you. As a matter of fact every speech I have made has been an elaboration of the sentence which you include in your second paragraph as the proper embodiment of the Conservative faith. The fact that my speeches are given different aspects by Liberal papers is something I cannot overcome.

Thank you for sending me the extract from the letter from the Sun Maid Raisin Growers Association.
