

half-act Application was made for a Patent by the widow in October 1889, when she was asked to file a release from her late husband's heirs and proof of their being such which she has never done.

In October 1891 the Dept was advised of the death of the widow of Patrick McGrath and patent was asked for in the name of her adopted daughter by Messrs Sherry & Macaulay Barristers, Kellewell, Dublin, and they were advised that the claimant or claimants for Patent should establish their claim before the Heir, Devisee

(2)