the road with a family of 8 children without even getting the chance to reap the crop I seeded on that land this spring.

Please let me know if you will allow this to be done as I bought the land in good faith and having made my home on it I judge I should have the first chance to buy it at equal price.

I wrote you already several times but as I cannot write English myself ~~and~~ you probably never understood what I meant.

Hoping to get a reply soon I remain

Yours truly,
