St. Regis 19th May 1902

Sir,

In relation to your letter to Mr. Thomas White dated 16th instant Form D. 7.247470

Also Thomas White's letter dated 12th instant to the Department in reference to the disputed ownership of the piece of land on Cornwall Island, between Thomas White and his son Matthew White.

Thomas White in October last sold to Chief Peter Oak of Cornwall Island, the piece of land in dispute occupied by his son Matthew White.

Thomas White stated I have not made any division of my land, therefore I claim I have a right to sell.

your obedient servant
George Long.
Agent.
