

Now about the <sup>2</sup> pay I never got.
 I never had a cent of yours since the new year the last time I got any for your twenty three was the December cheque I never got my own for the month of January & up to the 19th of February, so that's $89.81 of mine & the kids I never got & all of yours for six-month now I never got.

Hope you're not getting as much dirty weather as we are the sun shone part of two days since you left. It's just pouring now has been ever since about twelve o'clock today

Am scared to go to bed & let the fire out the stove might go a drift

Funny thing that last letter I had from John never turned up & I never got around to getting it answered yet.
 They've never found out who killed Fred Hinchy yet.
