

A MAPLE SUGAR CONTEST

Primarily with the object of encouraging improvement in the methods of making maple syrup and sugar, and secondarily for the purpose of securing samples of No. 1 quality to be used in educating the public, Mr. John H. Grimm of Montreal, a director of the Pure Maple Sugar and Syrup Co-operative Agricultural Association, conducted in the spring of 1913, a maple syrup and sugar contest in which were awarded prizes amounting to five hundred dollars. In the syrup section there were 513 contestants and in the sugar section 233. The entries, which came from each of the four sugar making provinces, were judged by Prof. C. H. Jones of the Vermont Agricultural College who is considered perhaps the most capable judge of maple products in the world. In judging the maximum points allowed were for syrup, flavour 60, colour 25 and body 15. In judging sugar 60 points were allowed for flavour and 40 points for colour.

The following tables give the winners, the scores and the prizes won in the syrup and sugar sections.
