

F. D. HOW'S TWO LATEST BOOKS

Clerical Humour of Olden Time

Being Sketches of some Clerical Humorists between the Twelfth and the Eighteenth Centuries

In large crown 8vo, cloth gilt, gilt top, with frontispiece, 6s. net.

"Six centuries of leisure and laughter are represented in this amusing book. Altogether, Mr. How is to be congratulated on a lively and diverting book, which throws many sidelights on clerical life in vanished centuries."—Standard.

"This attractive volume by a practised hand explores an almost exhaustless quarry of material which is of peculiar interest, especially to churchmen. It must have been difficult to have made a selection out of so rich a field, but Mr. How has done his work well. . . . its entertaining pages. . . . We hope to see a similar volume from Mr. How's skilled pen dealing with more recent times."—Record.

The Book of the Child

An Attempt to Set Down what is in the Mind of Children

In foolscap 8vo, leather, 3s. 6d. net ; cloth, 2s. 0d. net.

"A very charming little book, irradiated with many flashes of insight and many gleams of a peculiar tender humour. There is no formalism here. . . . Mr. How has a light and pretty touch, and has evidently been a loving and faithful observer of the little ones about whom he here tells many delightful and some touching stories. . . . Everybody must appreciate the general charm of this very pleasant booklet."—Punch.

"A sympathetic treatment of the various phases of a child's mind."—Morning Post.

"A pretty little book. . . . It is a subtle analysis of the child-mind, enlivened with pleasing stories. The chapters deal with the child's memory, imagination, religion, imitative powers, pleasures, and the pathos of childhood. The author has evidently studied his subject with care, and parents will do well to consult these entertaining pages."—Madame.
