

have had the effect of intensifying their desire to have a good school established and maintained in their own neighborhood, and led to their being exceedingly useful as School Trustees.

It will matter little however that there are those suitable to act as Trustees, if there is indifference exhibited in the matter of appointment: if the correctly-thinking portion of any community do not make a point of being in their place to prevent such appointments being made as are the result of selfish considerations, and which are frequently so exceedingly detrimental.—The great responsibility after all rests with the electors of the Trustees—the ratepayers of the School Section.
