My Lesson.

I told a secret! It wasn't much For a little girl to tell; And I only told it, softly and low, To my intimate schoolmate, Belle.

But the silly secret grew and grew, And all around it spread, Until at last it was hard to find The thing I had really said.

And when I sat in mamma's lap With all my troubles told, She said 'twas the "matter great" that

So I learned a lesson well that night Before I went to bed; And mamma gave me a rule to keep; And this is what she said:

From the "little fire" of old.

"The only way is never to say A word that can offend; Not even close to the listening ear Of the dearest intimate friend!" -Youth's Companion.

Hints for Girls.

Don't repeat gossip, if it does interest a crowd. Don't go untidy on the plea that everybody knows you. Don't be rude to your inferiors in social position. Don't over or underdress. Don't express a positive opinion unless you perfectly understand what you are talking about. Don't get in the habit of vulgarizing life by making light of the sentiment of it. Don't jeer at anybody's religious belief. Don't try to be anything else but a gentle-woman —and that means a woman who has consideration for the whole world and whose life is governed by the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as you would be done by."

Sunday-School Lessons

BY THE REV. WALKER GWYNNE.

EDITED BY THE RT. REV. W. C. DOANE, S. T. D., BISHOP OF ALBANY.

"Bible Lessons for the Christian Year."

"Picture Lessons for the Christian Year."

Both of these Series are Intended to Supplement the "Manuals of Christian Doctrine," and to be Used Harmoniously with them.

The "BIBLE LESSONS" follow the "Lections" for the first year in the Manuals" (New Testament). They will be in two grades, Junior and Senior, the latter being meant for teachers and Bible classes.

The "PICTURE LESSONS" are intended for Infant classes, and also follow the same general teaching as the Manuals. They will consist of, 1st—a brief lesson paper, partly narrative and partly questions, with outline drawings. 2d—Fifty. two large, exquisitely drawn Bible pictures, 3 ft. x 2 ft., specially designed to illustrate this series, by the eminent English artist, Mr. Wyndham Hughes.

The lessons of both series will be published in quarterly numbers, the Junior and Infant grades being so arranged as to allow of each lesson being cut apart if desired. The Pictures will also be published quarterly in sets of thirteen, mounted on a roller.

Bible	Pictures	Per Qu	uarter, $1	25, P	er Year,		 	5 00)

It is to be remembered that one set of these pictures will serve a school for many years, and that the price of the Picture Lessons, 10 cents, is less than that usually charged for lesson papers containing a small outline drawing. It is obvious also that large cartoons, besides possessing so much more beauty and instruction, have the advantage that they are always fresh every Sunday.
