I CURE MEN!

I believe in a fair deal. If you have a good thing and know it yourself, give others a chance to enjoy it in a way they can afford. I've got a good thing. I'm proving that every day. I want every weak, puny man, every man with a pain or an ache, to get the benefit of my Electric Belt.

Some men have doctored a good deal — some have used other ways of applying electricity — without getting cured, and they are chary about paying money now until they know what they are paying for.

If you are that kind of a man, this belt is yours without a cent of cost to you until you are ready to say to me, "Doctor, you have earned your price, and here it is."

That's trusting you a good deal, and it is showing a good deal of confidence in my belt. But I know that most men are honest, especially when they have been cured of a serious ailment, and very few will impose on me. As to what my belt will do, I know that it will cure wherever there is a possible chance, and there is a good chance in nine cases out of ten. So you can afford to let me try anyway, and I'll take the chances. If you are not sick, don't trifle with me; but if you are, you owe it to yourself and to me, when I make an offer like this, to give me a fair trial. I want you to know what I have done for others.

Dr. McLaughlin:
Dear Sir,—I am pleased to be able to tell you that I now feel like a new man in every way. Wishing you all the success that you deserve in your endeavor to relieve suffering humanity, I remain, yours sincerely,
F. A. OUELLET.

If you would believe the thousands of men whom I have already treated, my belt is worth its weight in gold.

Dr. McLaughlin:
My Dear Sir,—I am proud to be able to tell you that your Belt has made a new man of me. Instead of worrying as I used to, I let the other fellows do it all now. I gained ten pounds in weight in less than two months. I always feel cheerful, never borrowing trouble as I used to. It's a pleasure to live now, as nothing discourages me. Wishing you every success with your grand appliance, I remain, yours very truly,
D. McCORMICK, Brockville, Ont.

But some men don't believe anything until they see it. That's why I make this offer. I want to let you see it, and feel it, and know it by your own experience, before I get a cent.

If I don't cure you, my belt comes back to me, and we quit friends. You are out the time you spend on it, wearing it while you sleep—nothing more.

But I expect to cure you if I take your case. If I think I can't cure you I'll tell you so, and not waste your time. Anyway, try me, at my expense. Come and see me and let me show you what I have; or if you can't, then cut out this ad. and send it in. It will bring you a description of my belt, and a book that will inspire you to be a man among men, all free.
