18 BROAD STREET

CHAFF.

Give the devil his choice and he would rather start one church fuss than two saloons in any community.

Visitor—Is your father as old as he looks?

Son (whose father is an Alderman)—
I don't know, but I'm sure he isn't as big as he feels.

Clara—Mr. Spudkins wants me to make a cover for his umbrella, and I don't know what material to use.

Maud—Why don't you use one of your silk stockings?

Stiggins—Who is that gentleman with whom you were walking a while ago?

Pennybunker—He is an original humorist.

But why did you lift your hat continually while you were talking to him?

He was telling me some original jokes, and whenever I recognize an old acquaintance I always lift my hat.—
Winnipeg Mirror.

Dr. Sawyer—I shan't call you
"duddy" in public again, my angel."

Young Mrs. Sawyer—But why not,
Robert? I do so love to have you affectionate with me.

Dr. Sawyer—No doubt you do, pet ;
but when the habit to which I have alluded gives a venomous rival like Dr. Allen an opportunity to refer to me as your quack, it is, I think, high time I cast about for some other term
of endearment.
