Unwarrantable Arrest.

Last week two young men from Mildmay, Ontario, Canada, R. R. and H. R. Whiting, canvassed Lincoln for stereo scopic views, boarding with Mrs. Me Kennan on Broadway. On Saturday they desired to leave and settled with their landlady as gentlemen should. They could not make the change and Mrs. McKennan being unwilling to take Canadian money, the eldest brother, for such they were, R. R. Whiting, ten dered a check for $4 on the First National bank of Lincoln, which was ac cepted by Mrs. McKennan and when presented at the bank was thrown out with the explanation that he had no funds.

Mrs. McKennan was subsequently advised to file complaint and ask for a warrant, which was issued by Justice Rudolph. Chief of Police Mitchell, armed with the warrant, went to Mason City, where he had previously located the young men and ordered their arrest. He refused to listen to explanations, as an officer always does in such instances. They protested their innocence and one even showed a bank book which proved he had deposited $200 in the First National on April 10, subject to check, but they were dragged back to Lincoln and held at the police station until a late hour Saturday night, when an employe of the bank discovered, upon investigation, that their claims of having money in the bank were correct. consequently they were released.

On Sunday Chief of Police Linnegar and Constable W. Lesoard, both of Mason City, arrived here to ascertain what became of the case, for when arrested the young men had $57 23 and a watch each and they (the officers) say they did not approve of the treatment of the prisoners, but found the young men at liberty and the proper repara tion made by the local officers.

The case is an aggravating misunder standing all around. The bank had no intention of doing anyone a wrong-The account being a new one and are, was forgotten and overlooked in Fresh Lemons, Oranges, Oysters and the hurry of Lusiness such a day as Sat-

Two days later they met again. "I must thank you once more for fhose eggs," said Mr. Good. "They were fine. I did enjoy them. You know I'm great on omelet, and those eggs made the finest omelet I've eaten for
