Kings County Court. Abraham W. Day and Charles V. McBeath, vs. Arthur Crandall. In this case the plaintiffs had been hauling lumber for the defendant during the winter and claim the balance due them of $191.87. A dispute arose between the parties as to the quantity of logs hauled. The plaintiffs immediatev issued a bailable capias against the defendant in the Kings County Court for the recovery of the amount they claimed and at the same time procured an order from Judge Wedderburn without disclosing the fact of the bailable capias) for the issue of the Writ of Attachment under the Woodmen's Lien Act, and sent the Writ of Attachment and capias to the Sheriff of Kings by the same mail, in the same envelope. The Sheriff executed the capias, but before he could execute the Writ of Attachment an application was made by Hanington and Hanington to rescind the order for the attachment with the Writ and proceedings thereon, upon which a summons was granted by the Judge with a stay of proceedings. After a lengthy enquiry including the reading of fifteen affidavita many of them being of great length, the plaintiffs having refused to attend for cross-examination (upon the affidavits) and upon hearing counsel for both parties, His Honor Judge Wedderburn rendered his decision in favor of the defendant rescinding his order and setting aside the Writ of Attachment and preceedings thereunder with costs.
