The Dominion Steel Products Company, Ltd.

Public notice is hereby given that under the First Part of Chapter 79 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, known as "The Companies Act," letters patent have been issued under the Seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 25th day of July, 1916, incorporating Willoughby Staples Brewster and George Davey Hey, barristers-at-law, Belle Roberts Brewster, married woman, Mae Forestelle McGraw, stenographer, and Roy Thomas McGraw, contractor, all of the City of Brantford, in the Province of Ontario.

(a) To carry on the business of manufacturing, selling and dealing in all kinds of articles made from metal or wood, including all kinds of machinery, machine supplies, tools, shells, guns, munitions and implements of war, and all articles and commodities in which steel, iron, brass, copper or any kind of metal or wood forms a part:

(b) To buy, sell, manufacture and deal in machinery, implements, conveniences, provisions and things capable of being used in connection with the manufacturing and other operations which the company may carry on or be interested in or required by workmen and others employed by the company;

(c) To buy, sell or deal in all such articles and goods as the company may consider capable of being conveniently dealt in relation to its business and to manufacture and establish, equip, maintain and operate factories for manufacturing articles and goods for any or all of the above mentioned purposes;

(d) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business conducted directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the company's property or rights.

(e) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities, municipal, local or otherwise that may seem conducive to the company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the company may obtain and to carry out exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(f) To purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire, or otherwise acquire, any personal property and any rights or privileges in connection with the company's business and to carry out exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(g) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, works, factories, warehouses, electric works, and other works and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the company's interest and to contribute to, subsidize or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof;

(h) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company or any part thereof in such consideration as the company may think fit and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the company;

(i) To prosecute, amalgamate with, or enter into any arrangement for sharing of profits, the union of interests, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any other company or company carrying on or about to carry on business similar to that of the company or auxiliary thereto; to advance money or to guarantee the contract of any other company or company carrying on business with this company or indebted to it, and to invest any of the monies of the company in the shares of any other company carrying on a similar business;

(j) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 44 of the Act to subscribe for, receive, purchase or otherwise acquire the shares or securities of any company carrying on a similar business or to accept the same in whole or in part payment or discharge of the price or consideration of the sale, lease, concession or other disposal of any property, rights or debts which may be held, enjoyed by or due to this company; and such shares or securities to hold, vote upon, sell, re-issue or otherwise deal with as this company may see fit;

(k) To purchase, lease, exchange or otherwise acquire and possess and deal in all movable and immovable property which the company may deem necessary or useful for its business or operations, including trade marks, industrial designs, patents, patent rights, licenses, franchise or other rights and privileges of any kind whatsoever;

(l) To issue shares of the company, common or preferred, in payment for property acquired by, or with the approval of the shareholders for services rendered to the promoters in connection with the incorporation and organization of the company, or for franchise, options, contracts or other rights, benefits or privileges;

(m) To do all or any of the above things authorized by the Letters Patent as principals, agents, contractors or otherwise, either alone or in conjunction with others;

(n) The powers in each of the

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

On August 9th, at the home of Mrs. A. Sharp, the regular meeting of Moyle Tranquility Women's Institute took place, with about 50 members present. The meeting opened by singing "O Canada." After the roll call was answered and the business for the day was transacted, the girls took entire charge of the meeting, with Miss Grace Brittain in the chair. The following program was given: Reading, by Miss Smith, of Paris; reading, by Miss Marjorie Osborne; instrumental solo and a paper on sensible and sanitary house dress, by Miss Isa Sharp and a demonstration in first dress, by Miss Kate Barrie. It was decided by the members to visit Tutela Institute in September. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Sanderson, River Road. Afternoon tea was served by the girls and the meeting closed with a vote of thanks to the hostess.
