We have already written much about our New Spring Goods, but have not yet been able to tell the half. We are daily opening up novelties in New Goods. If you have time to call and look through our assortment we will take pleasure in showing.

ORDERING BY MAIL.—We have one whose special duty it is to receive and carefully and promptly execute all orders by mail. You can do it in this way:—Pick out in your mind what is wanted, and then write us a letter and wait. You will, in no case, require to wait longer than a day or so, because we will fill all orders for samples same day as received. Then make two or three selections, so that if first choice should be sold in the meantime, we can still suit you; or if the article is so large that we cannot send samples, if you write intelligently we will try and catch your precise idea and fill the request. If goods should not be what you want you can return them and get your money back. Samples cheerfully and promptly mailed to any address.

HOUSEKEEPERS, we can now interest you to your advantage with Lace Curtains in great variety, which we are retailing at wholesale prices. Art Muslins, hundreds of yards to choose from, all new patterns. Seamless Carpet Squares, Curtain Poles and curtain Chains, all direct from manufacturers. Window Shades, Patent Curtain Rollers. We have not space to begin to enumerate the many lines of Furnishings we have now ready to show you. Call and see us, and we will have pleasure in showing you through.

ADDITION.

FRONT OF TONGE.
MONDAY, April 21.—Mr. S. Hoobom is fitting up his residence in good shape. Mr. S. H. Dickey is at present putting on the finishing touch in the shape of a coat of paint.
Mrs. Duncan has a good stock of goods, and a large sample of eggs and butter, supplied by farmers and their wives, taking in exchange for goods, such as tea, tobacco and dry goods.
Mr. Charles Truettell, of Ingersoll, made about 2,700 lbs. of sugar. Mr. Jas. Herbinson comes next with a fine lot of sugar bricks.
Mr. George Towe is the only farmer in this section, who became rich by farming. Said gentleman has amassed a nice little fortune and retired.
Mr. William Kerr is applying his mind in improvements on farming machines. A potato digger was his latest study. Keep right on, William.
Mr. Jas. Jackson, who has rented the blacksmith shop from Mr. James Tennant, is doing a good trade.
Farmers are now busily engaged in seeding. The land is in some localities becoming quite dry.
A dreadful fire took place one night last week on the Jones' creek. Whisky was the order of the night. Fishing and whisky, as a general thing, go hand in hand.

BALLYCANOR.
Mr. Thos. Flood and sons are busily engaged in erecting a commodious summer kitchen or woodshed.
A French Canadian, from Ohio, is about purchasing a lot from Mr. J. Flood, wherein he intends buying several general provision stores. He will also keep the proposed new post office.
The R. C. church committee held a meeting on Monday to work on the church shed. Some thirty men assisted.
Mr. W. Kerr, the assiduous bookworm, is leading a very ascetic life, being almost a fast-simile of the discolored monks of the Theobald. He is alone in his hermitage. What course will he take?
Bob Dixie and his old grey mare got anchored in the mud last week. Ed Leader came in his rescue by pulling both out with his healthy team.
Peter Flood, son of John Flood, Esq., was out on a rowing boat, while out fishing. His faithful dog saved him from the jaws of death.
Jas. Bolger is a genius. He has just completed a fancy sulky, the plan of which he himself conceived, and he is doing a general provision store. It is said that in a few weeks, just after spring work is over, Mr. Jas. Bolger will change the name of a fair maid.

TEMPERANCE LAKE.
THURSDAY, April 17.—Miss Laura Mansell returned from her school in Lansdowne lately, accompanied by her friend Miss Landon, of that place. From Miss Mansell's appearance, she is having a pleasant time teaching. She claims that her school-division is the most agreeable to be in. In fact, she is the more agreeable we are ourselves the more agreeable we shall find the whole world.
More and cleaner sugar was made this week than was expected.
Mrs. D. Avery snatched off a lot of six hundred pounds that might challenge the country. If the farmers who used the old sap-trough, tapped with the axe, and made the sugar in a lot of little kettles strung on a long pole in the blinding smoke, could see the beautiful present make of sugar, they would be amazed and say by way of apology, that the sap used to be darker than it is now.
Mrs. Wm. Avery is steadily improving. Mr. Delbert Avery, notwithstanding the predictions to the contrary last winter, is doing his full quota of work on the farm.
The ice in the lake, from the time it began to go, disappeared in forty-eight hours. There is talk of boats for pleasure and to cross the lake for huckleberries; also a boat house.
The school closed here on Tuesday last. Miss Emory, the teacher, has been here for some time past designing, painting and making a silk crazy quilt. The novelty and beauty of it form a unique article, and the skill and fine taste displayed show an artistic hand.
The moonlighters who were out the other evening on an escapade and passed on their return to Ingersoll, are probably not aware they exposed themselves to a raking fire of the names of Boys, the longest way round is sometimes the shortest way home.

MALLOYTOWN.
SATURDAY, April 19.—Quarterly services in the Methodist church here Sunday morning, April 27th.
Misses Florence and Jennie Guilds are spending a few days with their grandfather, Mr. John Collins.
We are pleased to see that Mr. Frank Malloy is rapidly recovering from his ill illness.
Mr. Johnny Austin has returned after spending a week at his home. He leaves the 26th for Glen Buell where he is engaged to manufacture cheese the coming season.
Miss Nellie Judd spent a few days at home and is now with her sister, Mrs. A. Chapman, Brockville.
What about our new paragon? Mr. Ben Cooper is putting up a new barn.
Mr. Robert Avery lost a horse on Saturday last.

CHARLESTON LAKE.
MONDAY, April 21.—The quiet little village was started on Saturday night by loud talk in front of the hotel, and what do you think it was about? A resident of our village (a pretended member of the Anglers' Association) and together men were caught netting by Inspector Hicks, who took their nets. The parties, after some jangling retired to Duffell's hotel. On returning the Inspector found that the net was gone and the bird had flown. The fishermen were mulcted in heavy fine and costs and suffered the confiscation of the property used in their nefarious work. On Monday the stolen net was returned to the Inspector by its former owner with a humble apology. This should be sufficient to prove that the Inspector, backed by the Anglers' association, means to stop the illegal fishing so freely indulged in in times past.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.
MONDAY, April 21.—M. Heffernan and wife will move to their home near Charleston Lake next week. The parents of the esteemed young couple have given them a substantial start in their new home, as cows, horses, sheep, fowls, valuable house furniture and other miscellaneous articles. We wish the young couple success and a life full of happiness.
Mr. Ed. Cox has secured a very lucrative situation with an extensive lumber firm in Montreal.

PLUM HOLLOW.
TUESDAY, April 22.—Chas. Stevens has erected a highly ornamental house.
Wellington Randolph, who has been very ill, is now slowly recovering.
Geo. Stevens' wife has presented him with a son. He is a very proud man.
Good fishing in the lake and no trouble from the inspector so far.
Lakes society has received a severe shock which has cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood. What's the matter? Only this: W. T. has engaged a girl to assist in the ordinary department of his home. Oh, how horrible! Just to think of it! Why, under this arrangement of his domestic affairs he will be able to do nothing—positively nothing—for a brief period each day. For eleven years he has labored on it, and for the past two years he has had added to his work in the fields the care of his home by day and by night and his hours of rest have been few and far between, and we really thought that his early disability would throw lot 11 on the market. But now, having he engaged help and his days may be indefinitely prolonged. Chorus by female voices: "Oh, the bold bad man." The following is suggested for memorization by the Lake St. electioneers:

Since meridian light commenced,
Farther light revealed to some;
If there will be no more
Who to him by whom they come.

If any man should
In his eye there is a mote,
If thou art a friend or neighbor,
Hold, and let us put it out.
But I could not get it fairly,
When I came to see more clearly
In mine own there was a beam.

Late yesterday afternoon Mr. A. W. Blanchard of this village received a telegram informing him of the very serious illness of the wife of his son, Mr. Fred J. Blanchard. She had given birth to a pair of twins, one of whom was dead and the life of the other mother hung in the balance. At the time of going to press this afternoon we have no further news of the condition of the sufferer.

To Rent.—The flat over the Reformatory office, consisting of hall, parlor, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms and store room. Soft water at door and well convenient. Garden plot if desired. Possession given April 1st. Apply at REFORMATORY OFFICE.

Toronto city council gives $3,000 a year to have bands playing in the public parks. Hamilton $1,000, Brockville $100. Would it not be a wise move on the part of our village council to make a small grant to our village band on condition that they play once a week on the streets of the village.

A Bridgeport newspaper recently printed the following advertisement:—
Chu Fong would like to marry a Mexican lady. She no have to work, as Chu Fong got big lot of money. Chu Fong will do the washee and cookee; wife can dress up every day. Price, $10 for best girl. Chu Fong.

We have in stock a supply of Chinese aspirins, the latest novelties, just the thing for tea meetings, wedding breakfasts, etc. As the menu, programmes, etc., can be printed on the paper, we can give you a useful appendage but an interesting souvenir of the event. Managers of tea meetings, wedding parties, etc., should send for a sample and prices.

Here is a new swindling scheme, against which the self-sufficient city man as well as the gullible rural man should be on his guard. The sharper has a double fountain pen with two kinds of ink, one of which will fade. He writes an agreement with the ink that fades and the victim signs with the ink that does not fade. An entirely different agreement is afterward substituted, and the duped finds himself confronted with a promise to pay.

CHARLESTON LAKE.
MONDAY, April 21.—The quiet little village was started on Saturday night by loud talk in front of the hotel, and what do you think it was about? A resident of our village (a pretended member of the Anglers' Association) and together men were caught netting by Inspector Hicks, who took their nets. The parties, after some jangling retired to Duffell's hotel. On returning the Inspector found that the net was gone and the bird had flown. The fishermen were mulcted in heavy fine and costs and suffered the confiscation of the property used in their nefarious work. On Monday the stolen net was returned to the Inspector by its former owner with a humble apology. This should be sufficient to prove that the Inspector, backed by the Anglers' association, means to stop the illegal fishing so freely indulged in in times past.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.
MONDAY, April 21.—M. Heffernan and wife will move to their home near Charleston Lake next week. The parents of the esteemed young couple have given them a substantial start in their new home, as cows, horses, sheep, fowls, valuable house furniture and other miscellaneous articles. We wish the young couple success and a life full of happiness.
Mr. Ed. Cox has secured a very lucrative situation with an extensive lumber firm in Montreal.

PLUM HOLLOW.
TUESDAY, April 22.—Chas. Stevens has erected a highly ornamental house.
Wellington Randolph, who has been very ill, is now slowly recovering.
Geo. Stevens' wife has presented him with a son. He is a very proud man.
Good fishing in the lake and no trouble from the inspector so far.
Lakes society has received a severe shock which has cast a gloom over the entire neighborhood. What's the matter? Only this: W. T. has engaged a girl to assist in the ordinary department of his home. Oh, how horrible! Just to think of it! Why, under this arrangement of his domestic affairs he will be able to do nothing—positively nothing—for a brief period each day. For eleven years he has labored on it, and for the past two years he has had added to his work in the fields the care of his home by day and by night and his hours of rest have been few and far between, and we really thought that his early disability would throw lot 11 on the market. But now, having he engaged help and his days may be indefinitely prolonged. Chorus by female voices: "Oh, the bold bad man." The following is suggested for memorization by the Lake St. electioneers:

Since meridian light commenced,
Farther light revealed to some;
If there will be no more
Who to him by whom they come.

If any man should
In his eye there is a mote,
If thou art a friend or neighbor,
Hold, and let us put it out.
But I could not get it fairly,
When I came to see more clearly
In mine own there was a beam.

Late yesterday afternoon Mr. A. W. Blanchard of this village received a telegram informing him of the very serious illness of the wife of his son, Mr. Fred J. Blanchard. She had given birth to a pair of twins, one of whom was dead and the life of the other mother hung in the balance. At the time of going to press this afternoon we have no further news of the condition of the sufferer.

Toronto city council gives $3,000 a year to have bands playing in the public parks. Hamilton $1,000, Brockville $100. Would it not be a wise move on the part of our village council to make a small grant to our village band on condition that they play once a week on the streets of the village.

A Bridgeport newspaper recently printed the following advertisement:—
Chu Fong would like to marry a Mexican lady. She no have to work, as Chu Fong got big lot of money. Chu Fong will do the washee and cookee; wife can dress up every day. Price, $10 for best girl. Chu Fong.

We have in stock a supply of Chinese aspirins, the latest novelties, just the thing for tea meetings, wedding breakfasts, etc. As the menu, programmes, etc., can be printed on the paper, we can give you a useful appendage but an interesting souvenir of the event. Managers of tea meetings, wedding parties, etc., should send for a sample and prices.

Here is a new swindling scheme, against which the self-sufficient city man as well as the gullible rural man should be on his guard. The sharper has a double fountain pen with two kinds of ink, one of which will fade. He writes an agreement with the ink that fades and the victim signs with the ink that does not fade. An entirely different agreement is afterward substituted, and the duped finds himself confronted with a promise to pay.
