Mrs. P. Flood and company gave a grand concert here on Thursday night. Some Sheatown taient was expected but the intense cold weather prevented their appearance. The concert was a success, both financially and as an ente tainment. The programme consisted mainly of instrumental and vocal music. Mrs. P. Flood played exceptionally well on the violin, accom-panied by Mrs. Leeder at the piano, and Hessie Birch with the mouth organ. Space does not permit to give account of the proceedings respt to say that the music was such a to call forth many rounds of applause and several encores.

-In the recent municipal elections, is said that a new argument was use among the ratepayers in some of the townships to bring about the defeat of the reeve. In Kitley, Elizabethtown, and the Front of Yonge, the reeves were attacked by a few of the voters because these reeves had voted and worked for the establishment of the Industrial Home at its present site.
This mode of attack, however, was unsuccessful, and in each of these townunsuccessful, and in each of these contributions ships a majority of the electors pronounced in favor of those same reeves, thus emphasizing the fact that a majority of the people believe that last year's counties council did its duty year's counties council did its duty faithfully and well in the matter o
