OVER and over again we replenish the Underwear stock. It seems as if we never could get enough. That's because our Men's Underwear is right. Right in price, right in quality. Down to the lowest notch of safe cheapness—(there's such a thing as unsafe cheapness)—and quality up to top notch of perfection. During this guss-wear weather you need warm underwear. We have lots of wool underwear, but to-day we want to talk about cotton underwear for sensitive skinned folk. Now wool wearers, who don't like wool underwear, can't wear it at all. But then they need warmth and they expect just as much preparation for their needs as the wool wearers. Once wool meant warmth and cotton, coolness; now cotton shares with wool the honor of warmth-giving. Abundance of smooth, warm, wearable fleec-lined underwear in all sizes—slims or stouts. Good, fine, soft fleeced shirts and drawers, 50c each. Extra heavy, good quality, fleeced shirts and drawers, seamless sides, 75c each. Heavy, finely finished, shirts and drawers, fleeced; beautiful goods, all sizes, $1.00 each. "Wright's Health Underwear" is the best is the best fleeced underwear made, silk trimmed, extra finish, $1.25 each. Other underwear also at the Gent's Furnishing Department.

ANOTHER DOUBLE MURDER.

Port Arthur Piggy Case Solved After Nine Months.

Oliver Frevot, alias Gauthier, sentenced to Penitentiary for Seven Years for Theft, Tells How He and His Mistress Poisoned Ben's Dabie and Port Arthur and Burned Their Bodies.

Port Arthur, Ont., Nov. 28.—On the morning of the 11th of February last there was great excitement caused in the town when it was discovered that two Frenchmen named Ben Dabie and Fred Corriere, had been burned to death in a pigsty which was being built on the outskirts of the town. As there were suspicious circumstances about the case, the Provincial Government sent a detective, who thoroughly investigated the case, and was assisted as to the cause of the fire.

Corner Beck held an inquest, and after thorough investigation, the opinion was that a crime had been committed, but the guilty parties, if any, could not be discovered. It transpires now that one Oliver Frevot, who was living in town at the time, had been in the building, and was seen by a woman named Gauthier, who is alleged to have quarreled with him, and made a confession to the story upon the streets, which, as far as can be substantiated, is correct. The Frenchman was first pointed out by some person or persons and then carried to the pigsty and put in the building, which was then set on fire.

The supposed guilty parties are said to be in London, and it is likely they will be brought here, and an inquiry resumed. The report is that the Frenchman is actually committing the offence as yet undivided.

The Request at Pembroke.
Pembroke, Ont., Nov. 27.—Oliver Frevot, alias Gauthier, sentenced by Judge Armour to seven years for stealing by Judge Ben Dabie and Fred Corriere lived in a shanty near the hotel. The men called on Frevot, and he remained for supper. Frevot says the woman here, and left out the tea for the men, but would not give him any tea. Both men left the tea under the table, and it was found by the police.

One of the Most Dastardly and Blood-thirsty Crimes Stands Revealed in Its Appalling Horror.
Montreal, Nov. 27.—Of all the blood-thirsty and dastardly crimes that have been recorded in this province, yesterday's developments around the Frevot case are the most appalling. The facts are these: Frevot, the victim, was an energetic and successful carpenter by trade, and his only fault appeared to be that he was about 20 years of age and his wife some eight years younger, and, although he was considered a somewhat frivolous man, Frevot was supposed to be a fairly good worker, and his reputation for honesty and integrity was well known in the village of St. Gaudreault.

It has been common knowledge among the villagers that Madame Frevot had an intimate friend in the person of Sam Frevot, who resided at St. Gaudreault, and as the woman's husband at all times had been engaged for some time past as organist of the village church.

It is a well known fact that Frevot had a quarrel with Madame Frevot, and that she had time and again wished him to kill her. Some six months ago he bought a revolver in Montreal to do the deed, but the report was heard and that they would be caught in the act. He was then seen with a butcher knife, and that when Frevot was asleep on the bed, the knife was held over his head and he was killed.
