Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

COLD WEATHER PHILOSOPHY.

When the blizzard starts a-buzzing
And the wind's a Gelling gun,
Sending icy pellets whizzing
After every mother's son,
Who presumes to brave its rigor
In the alley or the street,
I promote my health and vigor
By the radiator's heat.

Sleighting may appeal to many
Who for stoppers have the price,
But to me, who haven't any,
Sleighting doesn't cut much ice.
I would rather snuggle closely
Where the gas logs softly glow
When the howling winds morosely
Sweep and heap and drift the snow.

Just a pipe to keep a-smoking;
Just a wife, with dimples sweet,
While the janitor keeps shoveling,
Sending up a lot of heat:
Just a book that's worth the reading:
Just a little hand to hold—
Swift the happy hours are speeding,
All forgot the storm and cold.

When the storm king gets to storming,
No King Boreas for mine,
Me I'd rather be a warming
Where the ruddy fires shine.
Let who will pursue his pleasure
Of the frigid, arctic cold,
I will batten on the treasure
That the brown old volumes hold.

Called Up Memories.

There was a terrible racket in the restaurant kitchen. The waitress and the dishwasher were having words, and large chunks of their language wafted into the dining room. A traveling man dining alone heard it and, putting his handkerchief to his eyes, bowed his head.

"What's the matter?" asked the sympathetic host, who came bustling through the room.

"Nothing," said the traveler. "It will soon pass. Only for a moment I was reminded of home."

Nothing Doing.

She had some strings upon her bow,
Some beads upon her string,
But she the beads was stringing, though,
And wouldn't clinch a thing.

Would Let Him Know.

"What is your husband's politics?"
"I don't really know."
"Never heard him say?"
"Well, you see, we have been married only a few months, and I haven't told him yet."

Simple Life.

Dear Eve didn't keep Adam guessing
When tickets he had for a show
By wasting the moments in dressing,
She'd just pick a fig leaf and go.

Some Bulkier.

"Pa, what does it mean when it says there was a fat year, followed by a lean year?"
"I suppose the fat year refers to leap year."

She Was a Woman.

"I will break your will."
"Maybe, but I would like to see you break my won't."

Later View.

When five and twenty years have fled
And we have won renown,
We thank the first girl that we loved
Because she threw us down.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Procrastination is the air brake on the fast express that old Father Time travels on.

Every day is the busy day of the grip germ and the cheerful doctor that travels in its wake.

Long stories make shy friends.

A judicious choice exercised as to remembering and forgetting often leaves us little to regret.

If we always get what we look for, some of us have a nice crop of follies coming our way.

Working seems to be the only insurance against being worked, and even that strenuous remedy does not render one absolutely immune.

The man who leads the simple life doesn't have a wife who belongs to a bridge whist club.

A little deafness now and then is practiced by the smartest men.

The problem that many of the fair sex are trying to solve is the kind that is found in the latest novel.

The measure of a man, after all, depends upon what he is measured for.

The bother about the whole thing is that our trouble making capacity far outdoes our trouble curing capacity.

Sharks and the Dead Whale.

The presence of any large quantity of easily obtainable food is always sufficient to secure the undivided attention of the shark tribe. When "cutting in" whales at sea, I have often been amazed at the incredible numbers of these creatures that gather in a short space of time, attracted by some mysterious means from heaven only knows what remote distances. It has often occurred to us when whaling in the neighborhood of New Zealand to get a sperm whale alongside without a sign of a shark below or a bird above. Within an hour from the time of our securing the vast mass of flesh to the ship the whole area within at least an acre has been alive with a seething multitude of sharks, while from every quarter came drifting silently an incalculable host of sea birds, converting the blue surface of the sea into the semblance of a plain of new fallen snow.

The harpooners and officers from their lofty position on the cutting stage slew scores upon scores by simply dropping their keen edged blubber spades upon the soft crowns of the struggling fish, the only place where a shark is vulnerable to instant death. The weapon sinks into the creature's brain, he gives a convulsive writhing or two, releases his hold and slowly sinks, followed in his descent by a knot of his immediate neighbors, all anxious to provide him with prompt sepulture within their own yearning maws.

Star Scintillation.

Much of the beauty of the stars depends upon their scintillation. The multitudinous flashing of their tiny rays gives a wonderful life and brilliancy to a winter's night. The great star Sirius excites the most admiration when, near the horizon, it coronates with rainbow hues. But the astronomer would be glad if he could put a stop to the scintillation of the stars. That unsteadiness of their light is one of the chief obstacles he has to overcome in studying them with the telescope. Scintillation has generally been regarded as due only to slight disturbances in the atmosphere. But as recent observations have shown that red stars scintillate less than white ones it has been suggested that the causes for some of the essential differences in the scintillations of different stars may be in the stars themselves. There is no doubt, however, that the main cause of scintillation depends upon the condition of the atmosphere.

His Cheerful Invitation.

Although Johnnie's and Willie's mothers are warm friends, those boys are always fighting each other. After a recent battle the victorious Johnnie was urged by his mother to go and make friends with his fallen foe. She even offered to give him a party if he would go over and bring Willie to come to that festivity. After much urging Johnnie promised to do as his mother wished. So the party came off at the appointed time and was violently enjoyed by all present. But Willie did not come.

"Now, Johnnie, you did invite him?" asked Johnnie's mother.

"Yes, I did! Yes, ma'am, I invited him," answered Johnnie. "I invited him," he added reflectively, "and I dared him to come."

An Odd Animal Combination.

Natural enemies of the animal world are sometimes found living together in extraordinary communities. J. G. Miller, in a volume on animals, quotes this experience of an observer: "On one occasion when ferreting I bolted a fox, a cat, a stoat and several rabbits and rats out of the same earth. The fox bolted first, after giving the ferret a nip across the back, from the effects of which it died an hour later. Next came the stoat and then the cat, both of which I shot. Then followed the rabbits and rats promiscuously. It was a large burrow on the bank of a deep, dry watercourse and often held a fox when I ferreted it afterward."

Talking Through a Human Body.

To talk through a human body or a row of human bodies, for the matter of that, is one of the weirdest of the electrician's feats. If a telephone wire be severed and the two ends be held by a person, one in each hand, but far apart, it is quite possible for two individuals to carry on a conversation through the body of the medium as readily and as distinctly as if the line had been properly connected.

Johnny's Horrid Finish.

"If you don't quit eating so much, Johnny," exclaimed Mrs. Lapsley, horrified at the gluttonous propensities of her youngest, "the first thing you know you'll be a regular filibuster!"

Feminine Bravery.

Tom—Do you think women are braver than men? Dick—Yes, I do. I never saw one yet that wouldn't take a chance at marriage.—Detroit Free Press.

Executions in Denmark.

Capital punishment in Denmark is executed publicly with an ax. If several are to be decapitated on the same date, one is not present while another is executed.

Incense Parties.

"Incense parties" were a common feature of old Japan. Each of the guests had a little furnace, a small wooden box packed with sand. On the top of this was a small charcoal fire. Each woman in turn burned some incense, and the others had to guess what it was. After every burning the windows were thrown open, and the room was cleared for the next experiment.

Preacher's Opinions

Rev. P. K. McKee, Forks Baddeck, N. B.: "I always count it a pleasure to recommend the Dr. Slocum Remedies to my parishioners. I believe there is nothing better for throat and lung troubles or weakness or run-down system. For speaker's sore throat I have found Psychine very beneficial."

Rev. W. H. Stevens, Paisley, Ont.: "Psychine seemed just the stimulant my system needed. I shall add my testimony as to its efficacy at every opportunity."

Rev. R. M. Browne, Amherst Head, N. B.: "I have often recommended Psychine since taking it myself, for it is a cure for the troubles you specify."

Rev. Chas. Stirling, Bath, N. B.: "I have used Psychine in my family; the results were marvelous. I have visited people who state that they never used its equal. I strongly recommend it."

Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, Markdale, Ont.: "I have taken two bottles of Psychine and am pleased to say that I am greatly improved in health. I was troubled with my throat, but now I find it about restored to its normal condition. I find my work very much less taxing. I believe Psychine is all claimed for it."

These are earnest preachers of the gospel of Psychine. They know whereof they speak. Psychine cures all throat, lung and stomach troubles. It is a great voice strengthener, acting directly on the vocal, respiratory and digestive organs, thus specially adapted to public speakers. At all druggists, 50c and $1.00, or Dr. T. A. Slocum, Ltd., Toronto.

The Ingredients of

Zutoo

One ingredient is soda—just old-fashioned soda, that our grandmothers took to settle the stomach, and there is nothing better.

Among the other ingredients there is not one that did not come from old Mother Earth herself.

There is not one that is not approved by both the British and American Pharmacopoeias, the highest medical authorities in the world.

There is not one that your family physician, even if a personal friend, would not approve of and prescribe.

If you are using some other headache remedy, why do you not change and use Zutoo instead?

It will cure your headaches and colds just as quickly and safeguard you against the bad after effects which may come from using the ordinary remedies. Zutoo tablets.

Are Harmless as Soda.

This APPEAL You
.....is for.....

The Great Provincial Charity, The Hospital for Sick Children,
Calls On You For Aid.

Remember that this Hospital is not a local institution, but Provincial.

It cares for every sick child in the Province of Ontario whose parents cannot afford to pay for treatment. Busy dollars are better than idle tears. The sympathy that Weeps is good, but the Hospital has to have the sympathy that Works.

Last year there were 1093 patients admitted. Of these 375 came from 254 places outside of Toronto—all were children of poor people who could not afford to pay for treatment of their little ones.

Each child was in the Hospital 47 1/2 days at a cost of $12.11 each per day, or $62.22 for the 5 1/2 days stay.

If you pay dollar a day straighten the feet of a little boy or girl with club feet, you would gladly give it, and your dollar will do that. There were 79 cases of club feet treated.

last year. Out of the 79, about 60 were from the country.

If you know of any child in your county who is sick or has club feet, and whose parents can not afford to pay, send the name to the Hospital Secretary.

The stock books are open. Won't you let the Hospital write your name down for a few shares in Heaven's own work of healing little children?

A great mine of Mercy the mining stock that always pays dividends is bought with the money that helps The Hospital for Sick Children to extract the Gold of Life from the Quartz of Death.

Please send contributions to J. Ross Robertson, Chairman, or to Douglas Davidson, Sec.-Treas., of the Hospital for Sick Children, College Street, Toronto.
