SACHEL

OF THE

SATELLITE

The people of Chatham appear to be wintering well.

This winter season has lasted most long enough.

The ice man is one of those who don't like this weather.

Periphrastics put the Satellite out of business Wednesday.

No, I don't know whether the weather is playing a freeze-out or not.

The men who stand with bated breaths are not necessarily fishermen.

Even in this weather a bit of gossip never gets frost in its busy rounds.

No, dear Alright Yes, a base hit in baseball parlance is not a cowardly blow.

Speaking of those postponed coronation ceremonies, do you every wonder how fire works?

When we tolerate other people's faults it's only human nature to look for a come-back.

It's all very well to believe only one-half you hear, but be careful about choosing that half.

Yes, dear Cousin Mimbex, Chatham has a lacrosse team, and a good one. They have never been beat.

The aldermen hope to keep the rate this year under 25 mills, but prospects look bright for it being 27 mills.

There is a standing reward of a dollar for any one who finds an original joke in the Satellite Column.

The man who can walk the sidewalks of St. Thomas without tripping against them sometimes must lift his feet high.

I was hurt when I saw that the Satellite's name did not appear in the list of those who got coronation honors.

If this coal strike keeps on, the strikers, as far as fires are concerned, will have many a put out to their credit.

The King is reigning in London, and the weather man is doing his best to keep us in mind of it. It is raining here nearly every day.

The strawberries are sour this year, because they didn't get any sun. The same reason has made a lot of married people I know, bitter.

There are many places that went to a great deal of trouble and expense, and didn't have any more coronation celebration than Chatham did.

"How," how'd the labor agitator, "can a man keep a large family on $5 per week?" "Hungry," said a man, who spoke confidently, as if from experience.

If the rate is 27 mills this year, I am afraid the coronation will look as though they had been through a mill when the ratepayers get through with them.

The editor of the this G. H. J. didn't go to the coronation because he was not up to snuff. The habit was unchangeable. Now he is just as well off as the mob who did go.

Dresden will have to look out for that best root sugar aggregation of ball players, or they showed here that they were strong on strikes.

The King didn't want Ross at the coronation. He took a severe way on preventing his attendance; but that just shows how opposed he was. Mr. Whitney, the real premier, will attend the coronation.

The sight of S. H. Blake arguing the case of a Conservative candidate in court reminds the community that when Mr. Whitney announced that "it is time for a change," at least one man took his word for it.

Clergyman (late) come to parish—Your neighbor, Smith, says my sermon was rubbish.

Farmer—Ah, you needn't mind, 'im, air, 'e's merely a mouthpiece for other folks.

Sunday School Scholar—Please ma'am, Tommy Smith says he ain't comin' to our Sunday School any more.

Teacher—Why, what is the matter with Tommy? Oh, he says he's been to Erieau twice already, and he wants to go somewhere else this year.

The Hamilton Spec's pie man thus bids for popularity in a certain quarter.

"If I were in charge of a bunch of boys and girls writing for the entrance examinations every mother's son and father's daughter of 'em would pass a-flying."

Dear Satellite—I commend Alderman Montee's suggestion to give the corporation employees a field day at Erieau. I don't advise, however, that they be decked for the time they are away, but I do advise that the burdocks on Head street be decked.

A little four years old was very much taken up with the Sunday school teacher. But returning from school the other Sunday, he went crying to his mother and told her the teacher had been telling stories.

"What has he told you, then, my darling?"

"He told us that angels watch all around our bed at night."

"So they do," was the mother's reply.

"How can they mamma, when my side is against the wall?"

Pete MacAuley's champions have the greatest coacher in the business in Louis Courier.

The husky chap who plays first base for Pete MacAuley's champions is the heaviest hitting player in county. They now call him Crawford Myers.

SCIENTIFICALLY SETTLED.

We gather from the reports of the eminent scientists who have been peering into volcanoes that there is no doubt that an eruption occurred.

AN EYE FOR HARMONY.

Mr. Simpson—Is your musical director a man of ability?

Miss Jenkins—Oh, yes; at our concert he placed all the prettiest girls in the front row.—Detroit Free Press.

A CASE FOR JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE.

Col. Sam Holmes had his "rode" cart painted a brilliant red. The Colonel calls it a "rode" cart because he rode in it one day.

WELL, THEY DIDN'T.

Bobbie—You know them preserves out in the pantry wot you told me not to eat?

Mother—Yes.

Bobbie—You know you said they'd make me sick if I eat 'em, didn't you?

Mother—Yes.

Bobbie—Well, they didn't.

THAT H WAS ALL RIGHT.

Rev. Dr. Swallow, who has recently been very much in the eye of the world because of his trial before his fellow Methodists on charges growing out of accusations against the late President McKinley, tells a story about George Alfred Townsend, who writes under the nom de plume of "Gath."

"What does that name mean?" Dr. Swallow was asked by a young lady of his parish.

"That's where he is going to when he dies," came from the doctor.

The questioner was vividly impressed.

"Is he such a very bad man?" she asked almost in a whisper.

"Certainly not," replied Dr. Swallow. "The H stands for Heaven."—New York Times.

Prussian Oil

is doing its work in this province where ever introduced as thoroughly as it has been being sold all over the Maritime Provinces and New England States where it is universal use curing the ailments that people are subject to.

Aches and Pains, Bruises and Sprains, Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, La Grippe, Burns and Scalds.

Very quickly when used as directed. Many people in London, St. Mary's, St. Thomas, Kidderminster and Chatham, testify to its wonderful curative powers and say it is the best medicine they ever had to cure their ailments.

International Bible Lesson for Tomorrow—Quarterly Review.

Golden Text—"A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of Thy people Israel."

The lessons of the past quarter have not only been intensely interesting from the incidents, but also most rich in Gospel truths, and the progress of the Gospel and the Church under the High Priesthood of the Lord Jesus and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and the Satanic and human opposition, has here been outlined for 28 years. The two leaders were Peter and Paul. The revelation of Jesus to Paul was wonderful and unexpected, yet this same Jesus is revealing himself to men and women daily in all parts of the world who are just about as bitter and bigotted. Peter's God-given work in opening the Church to Cornelius and his household and confirming Samaritans and other converts follows. Then, comes Paul's first missionary tour, and his second to unfurl the Standard of the Cross in Europe, where he floats to-day and will till he comes. Had the Church "stood fast in the liberty wherewith Christ had made it free under the direct guidance and control of the Holy Spirit it would have triumphed over God and man. However, we can, like Paul—a prisoner on his way to Rome when he met the brethren—thank God and take courage for all He is doing now in manifesting His mercy and love to men, although, like the Ephesian Church, we may have "left our first love."

Summer Furnishings

Doesn't much matter what you want. If it's seasonable, up-to-date, a good popular seller; if the style, wear and price rank right,—it's here.

Summer neckwear alone would furnish text for a book if we went into details. Same with underwear, hats, shirts, socks, umbrellas; these stores are at the summit of midsummer completeness.

There are furnishings here that you cannot get elsewhere, and other furnishings that you can get elsewhere but not at the same price. Those are two of the main reasons why you come here so faithfully.

Summer stocks are perfectly kept in our stores. No fly-spots or other damage. It pays to be modern.
