CREW'S NARROW ESCAPE.

Barge Goes Down in Storm, But No Lives Were Lost.

Providence, R. I., June 9.—The barge Pactolus was lost off Hogg Island on the New Jersey coast during a recent storm and Capt. James Deputy was badly hurt. Capt. Deputy and his crew of three men were saved. The barge was bounced up the coast in tow of the tug Tormentor.

Off Hogg Island during a southeasterly gale and heavy sea, a big comb swept over the deck of the barge and knocked Capt. Deputy down. He was rendered half unconscious, but managed to grasp the bulwark and keep from being swept over.

The barge sprang a leak and a few hours later it sank. The captain and crew escaped in the tender and were taken aboard the tug, which arrived here late yesterday.

WHEN YOU EAT TOO FAST.

You have indigestion, perhaps cramps, or in any case the system is overloaded with matter that should be eliminated. Breath gets bad, eyes look dull, headaches are frequent.

Why not cleanse and purify the whole system, why not strengthen the stomach, enrich the blood and assist your overtaxed digestive organs? Easily done with Dr. Hamilton's Pills; their action is most gratifying. In every case they give the exact assistance the ailing organs require. You'll feel fit and fine, eat with a relish, sleep like a top, have a clear color, and restful sleep if you regulate your system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Price 25c. per box, at all dealers.

Prodigal Son Returns.

Cincinnati, June 8.—A broken-hearted lad, in the custody of a detective, boarded a train at the Central Union Depot yesterday afternoon, bound for Kingsville, Ont. There his mother is dying, and it will be the detective's object to get there with his charge in time that the woman may see and forgive her son before death comes to her.

The boy is Russell Loundsberry, aged 16.

Ten days ago he is said to have forged his father's name to a draft for $330. Most of the money he spent in Detroit. Then he came to Cincinnati, where the rest was dissipated. Now his mother is at the point of death, and the boy is begging that he be hurried to her side that he may beg her forgiveness.

ROSY CHEEKS FOR PALE GIRLS.

Don't be barred from strength and spirit, don't give in to illness and despair. Ferrozone supplies tone and vigor through which all functions of womanly life are maintained and fortified. From New Richmond, Que., comes the following statement from Mrs. Iphigene Bouscualt: "I take deep pleasure in testifying to the powerful influence of Ferrozone. For years my daughter has been pale and rickety—showed signs of advanced anaemia. Her lips got so white and her cheeks so devoid of color I feared consumption. I can certify Ferrozone made an excellent cure, and to-day my daughter's health is the best." 50c. per box at all dealers.

Must Have Fire Escapes.

Ottawa, June 8.—Next week Provincial Building Inspector Gouin of Quebec will take proceedings against certain Hull hotels and manufacturers who have failed to equip their buildings with facilities for allowing inmates to escape in case of fire.

FUSHIMI IS WELCOMED.

Canadians Give Hearty Reception to Japanese Visitor.

Quebec, June 8.—In spite of the weather, the reception of His Imperial Highness Prince Fushimi in Quebec yesterday morning was enthusiastic and very impressive. Prince Fushimi, with his suite, landed at the King's Wharf at 11.14 o'clock. A salute of seventeen guns was fired from the Citadel. Prince Fushimi was met at the King's Wharf by His Excellency, Earl Grey; Sir Louis Jette, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec; Hon. Mr. Templeman, Minister of Inland Revenue; Hon. Mr. Lemieux, Postmaster-General; Hon. Mr. Noe, Consul-General of Japan; Sir Fred Borden, Minister of Militia, and several others, and escorted to his hotel by a guard of honor.

Rich Man Declared Insane. Lebanon, Ind., June 8.—Judge Artman yesterday declared George Rhodius of Indianapolis to be insane and appointed James M. Berry Hill of that city as his guardian. Rhodius owns real estate in Indianapolis worth $800,000. On Jan. 21 Rhodius was married at Louisville, in office of a justice of the peace, to Elma Dare, keeper of an Indianapolis resort. It was charged that the Dare woman kidnapped Rhodius. Judge Artman says he considers that Rhodius never married Elma Dare at all.

JAIL GOVERNOR DISMISSED.

Gov't Receives Adverse Report From Commissioner Who Investigated. Toronto, June 8.—Governor Vanzant of Toronto jail has been dismissed because of the charges which were brought against him, and which were investigated a couple of months ago by Mayor Judd of London, acting as a commissioner at the request of the Ontario Government.

It was known some days ago that Mr. Judd had his report prepared, but it was not until yesterday that his finding was received by the Government. The commissioner finds himself compelled to say that he believes that Mr. Vanzant was guilty of improper conduct with female prisoners, of incompetence, of irregularities, and of favoritism. In addition to this the commissioner declares that the discipline of the jail has been extremely bad, and that he has been guilty of taking bribes, he considers that in every other respect almost he is unfit to be the head of such an institution.

Things He Didn't Understand.

A shrewd, worldly agnostic and a Christian clergyman dressed in a modest clerical suit sat at the same table in the Pullman dining car. They were waiting for the first course at the dinner, a delicious Hudson river shad. Eying his companion coldly for a moment, the agnostic remarked:

"I judge you are a clergyman, sir?"

"Yes, sir. I am in my Master's service."

"Yes, you look it. Preach out of the Bible, don't you?"

"Oh, yes; of course."

"Find a good many things in that old book that you don't understand, don't you?"

"Oh, yes; some things."

"Well, what do you do then?"

"Why, my dear friend, I simply do just as I do while eating this delicious shad. If I come to a bone I quietly lay it on one side and go on enjoying the shad and let some fool insist on choking himself with the bones."

Then the agnostic wound up his Waterbury watch and went into the smoker.—Exchange.

Medicine In Ancient Egypt.

There is much evidence in inscriptions and manuscripts that the ancient Egyptians practiced medicine and surgery extensively. Probably their practice was based on little knowledge of anatomy. Each physician treated only one or two diseases. The sick were exposed in public places so that others who had suffered similarly might tell them of helpful remedies. Diseases of the eye were best understood and received both medical and surgical treatment. The most important medical manuscript found in Egypt is the Papyrus Ebers, written 3000 B. C. and discovered in Memphis. Disease, according to the Egyptians, was due to the anger of some deity, the result of the triumph of evil in its struggle with good, an idea which is still very general throughout Africa and Asia and which at some time has been prevalent in modified forms in almost every race.—Records of the Past.

TREATING WRONG DISEASE.

Many times women call on their physicians suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better; but probably worse by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all these distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

Steamer Bridgewater Ashore.

Halifax, N. S., June 8.—The steamer Bridgewater, on shore on the breakers near Port Beckett, 100 miles east of Halifax, yesterday afternoon. She was on her way from Halifax to Canso. The fog was dense, and the captain lost reckoning and struck the shoals. With great difficulty the boats were launched and the passengers and crew were saved. The steamer will be a total loss. She was valued at $22,000, was insured for $15,000. The steamer was owned by the Coastal Steam Packet Co., and was of steel, built in 1889.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart or The Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Do not make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by all dealers.

Body Found In River.

Brookville, June 8.—An employee of a summer cottage at Hillcrest, three miles above Brookville, yesterday discovered the decomposed body of a young man floating in the river. It was afterward identified as Richard Benedict, aged 18 years, who three weeks ago disappeared from an Indian settlement.

It is supposed he contracted a fit and fell into the water.

HIS ABLE DECISION.

Justice as It Was Dealt Out In a Certain Village.

The mayor of a village in a western state, under a law by which the mayor is also police judge, had before him a cattle stealing case.

Two men had stolen two steers and sold them to a butcher in the town for the extremely low price of $37.

Now, the jurisdiction of this mayor-police judge extended in such cases only to the limits of petty larceny, which required that the stolen articles be not of a value of more than $35. Beyond this amount the magistrate had to bind the prisoner or prisoners over to the circuit court, subject to the action of the next session of the grand jury. Likewise, in cases thus beyond his jurisdiction, the judge got no fee, and at this particular time, as at many others, he needed the money.

When the evidence had all been adduced the case was as plain as the process of an elephant seen in profile. The men had stolen the cattle, had sold them for $37. No amount of questioning could make the butcher who had bought them say that it was $34.50 or any other amount short of the originally mentioned sum. Apparently no mayor's fee was in sight.

Then the mayor thus summed up the case:

"We have heard the evidence in this case, and the duty of the court is clear. These men stole the cattle. They sold them for $37. Taking the mere prima facie evidence and the bare letter of the law, it would seem that it was a clear and unmistakable case of grand larceny. But I have decided to allow the two prisoners $4 for driving the cattle in to the market. This reduces the selling price to $33, and I fine the two prisoners each $20 and costs. The court is adjourned."—Chicago News.

His Trouble.

In a small Georgia town live an old negro couple, the support for both being the wife. Uncle Zeke spends most of his time fishing in the brickyard pond, not that he expects to catch any fish, but "des ter hab some harmless 'musement, chile." Aunt Mary takes in washing.

One day one of Aunt Mary's patrons broached the subject to her and suggested that she should not encourage her husband's laziness by supporting him in idleness, but Aunt Mary protested.

"Deed, honey, mah ole man ain't lazy," she declared; "it's des dem scientific notions he dun got when he was a wuckin' at de college."

"But what have scientific theories got to do with his not working?" the lady demanded.

"Got er whole lot ter do, honey," Aunt Mary said, gathering up her basket. "Yo see, dem ideas what he got was dat hit wasn't healthy ter wuck after meals, an' he ain't been able ter figger out no way ter 'complish dat, not yet—less he gibs up eatin', an' er course he can't do dat."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Literal Victim.

They stood pensively on the platform of the toy railroad station at the beautiful suburb Bensonville.

"I understand you clearly," said the victim. "You told me that the property was but a stone's throw from the station. Where is it?"

"It's just up the road a bit," replied the real estate man.

"But it should be right here. You said a stone's throw."

"Yes."

"Now, see here, sir," cried the victim testily, "you know blamed well that a stone can't throw."—Harper's Weekly.

How Long Will It Stay There?

There are times when I am blue, And, you bet, I hate 'em too. There are times when there's no joy in anything.

When dark clouds come 'cross my sky, When I almost want to cry, When I cuss, instead of praise, the birds that sing,

But that's when I'm busted flat, When I'm realizing that I'm right up against the commonest of loss.

But it's just the other way; There's no night—it's all bright day—If I only have a dollar in my clothes.

There is nothing quite so sad To one almost always glad Than to know his pockets don't contain a cent.

All his cheerfulness will fade, Into deep despair he'll wade, And he'll wonder where on earth his money went.

But the sun will shine once more, Shine as brightly as before, And he'll feel a tinge of joy clear to his toes.

When the time arrives that he Can dig where his coin should be, And discover he's a dollar in his clothes. —Denver Post.
