matters out will be the very one you wanted to use. Look at this little rack.

It is intended particularly for the pantry, being designed to hold bottles of flavoring extracts. It is perfectly easy to make too. This one was constructed of some stuff three-eighths of an inch thick. The slots for the bottles were started with a brace and bit, but even with a knife a clever boy could do this part of the work, and the rest of it will be clear sailing. There will be no bottles where such a rack is used. Try it.—Ladies' Home Journal.

OUTING STYLES

Fashions In Garb For Autumn Spor

and Pleasure. Among the paramount considerations which the autumn brings to those who ride is the thought of a new habit There is very little feeling at this sea son for other than plain dark clothes or, perhaps, pepper and salt mixtures, stripes having been but a passing whim. A skirt and coat of the season, smart and well cut, are here pictured Slightly longer in the basque than for merly and quite close fitting, the coat with its single breasted fronts can be worn open or closed, the former aspect revealing the presence of a neat vest. In motoring garb nothing short of leather is capable of keeping out the chill of late autumn and winter, and given a leather bodice, the coat wrap need not of necessity be the weighty affair it now so frequently proves.

For autumn shooting gowns in English style, that are not necessarily re stricted to their supposed purpose, one sees a threed of snuff brown color overlaid with faint red and green lines the hems and waistcoat of brown suede. In similar style is rough black or white frieze with facings of gray kid and a tiny collar of scarlet velvet.

J. V. WALDER.

Autumn Parasol Fads. One of the very newest fads is the carrying of dressy parasols all through the months of September, October and even the early part of November. This year they will play a very important part in the get up of the well dressed woman, according to the New Idea Magazine. Some bewilderingly love-ly parasols have been imported for late autumn ween. One lovely model, which has been sold to a fashionable New York woman to use at Lenox when wearing a dark blue chiffon crape gown, was made of four shades of blue chiffon cloth, one on top of the other, with four deep flounces around the edge. Around the stick, which was of dark blue enamel wood, was twined a piece of real Irish lace inser-tion. The handle was of repousse silver with a bow of Irish lace. Nearly all these autumn parasols are cut from very much darker materials, but are made to give the same fluffy effect as the lingerie parasols which have been so fashionable all summer. These new parasols are to be used in New York for driving and walking and also on all dressy occasions.

Dressing For Cabbage Salad. cream one-fourth of a cup of butter and beat into it the yolk, then the white of an egg. Add also two teaspoonfuls of sugar and a fourth of a teaspoonful each of mustard, salt and paprika. Then pour on very gradually beating constantly, half a cup of hot vinegar. Cook over hot water until the mixture thickens a little-it should be like thick cream-and let cool before stirring into a generous pint of fine shredded cabbage. This makes an acid dressing.

A Forerunner In Furs. That fashion rather favors the short coat or bolero as a fur model is suggested in some of the advance styles. Quite a simple form, evidently designed with an eye to thorough com-for in winter, yet carrying a certain very taking smartness, is the banded bolero or coatee illustrated. It is of seal, the loose fronts falling over a high shapely belt of black cloth, heramed with taffeta.

Leather Trimmings In Dress. Leather promises to be a noticeable garniture during the coming season. although (the leather vest excepted) it will be applied very discreetly, narrow pipings and collar facings representing the chief fancies. Black suede excellently sets off the rough ivory friezes and blanketing cloths that appear a certainty for late autumn wear.

Different Viewpoints, You've heard of the peril from over the kidneys which are situated beneath the small of the back.

Therefore, dull pain in the back, or sharp, quick twinges, are warnings of sick kidneys—warnings of kidney trouble. Plasters and liniments will not cure a bad back, for they cannot reach the kidneys which cause it. Doan's Kidney Pills reach the kidneys. That is what they are for and that only. So, if you would be free from backache, swelling of the feet and ankles, frequent or suppressed urine, painful sensation when urinating, specks floating before the eyes, frequent thirst, brick-dust deposit in the urine, or anything wrong with the urinary organs or bladder, you must keep your kidneys well. Help them to work freely, and help them to flush off all the body's waste and impurities.

Doan's Kidney Pills are made from the purest roots and herbs, and have a remarkable healing and toning effect on the kidneys. Mrs. Barling, 26 Locomotive Street, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled considerably with my kidneys, using many remedies, but finding no relief. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and found them to act directly on the kindeys, and making them strong again."

STOP! WOMEN.

AND CONSIDER THE

ALL-IMPORTANT

FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman — a woman whose experience with woman's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is reveling to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not under-stand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing them-selves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weak. Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman: thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her ing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham.—
"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month with my periods The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have ovarian and womb trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want to submit to it if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Sts., Benning P.O., Washington, D.C. Second letter.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham.—

' Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very anxious to send you my testimonial, that others may know their valueand what you have done for me.

Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result.

First letter.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month with my periods. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have ovarian and womb trouble, and I must go through an opartical if I want to get well. I do not want the medicine has been successful.

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation of I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my silient you and I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I owe my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and E. Capitol Streets, Benning P. O., Washington, D. C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn. Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.
