C. E. VAIL

Jeweller and Graduate Optician

Wishes to thank the people at large for their patronage in the past and solicit their Wish and Optical work in the future.

A few suggestions which might be helpful: In the State of Maine persons fitting glasses have to pass the state board and only those who are qualified are able to do that as there is a heavy fine for infringers.

Therefore our country is being flooded with so called opticians who are travelling from place to place advertising on experts. I have been in the Optical business for over four years and have a too well known and tested hand, day and night,
and could do good work in very difficult cases.

When I went to Montreal and took a course in the Montreal Optical Institute of Canada I had all frames with great praise from Mr. Foster Fox, who ordered a diploma for me which hangs in my office for inspection. If you want to find out what I know about fitting glasses just look at my diploma and see what the Optical Institute of Canada has to say about me.

I have in stock, on the latest Toronto and Steele lines, all kinds of anywhere, as well as all kinds of gold-filled gold frames. And will fit in any kind of glasses made anywhere. From a sphere or Cylinder or Compound lens, Toric or punctual, or Foric Kryptos. Prices range from $1 up to $15, according to what it takes to make the correction, and please my customer. An up-to-date line of sun and automobile glasses of all shapes. A new line of wedding rings and marriage licenses. Thank you again for your patronage.

I am yours,
C. E. VAIL

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

The ball given by the Centreville Athletic Association in the Opera House on Tuesday evening was a marked success. A capacity crowd of enthusiastic one-steppers was present and dancing was kept until the wee hours. Known orchestras from Fort Fairfield furnished excellent music for the occasion and had jazz enough to start one's feet moving no matter of what age or denomination. The management has decided to hold another ball on Thursday evening, June 12.

Dr. Geo. J. Burr and his Misses Days and Kathleen Burr of Fort Fairfield spent Tuesday and Wednesday in town.

Mrs. S. W. Niles, Mrs. L. L. Clark, Misses Dorothy Clark and Alice Niles spent Tuesday on a pleasant trip by motor to Moncton.

Mrs. Allan Baker of Woodstock spent Sunday with her father, G. G. London.

Wm. Kennedy of Woodstock was in town on Tuesday.

Don Campbell of Fredericton made a business trip to town on Wednesday.

All stores in Centreville will be closed on Tuesday, June 3.

Mr. R. P. K. McKenzie entertained a number of friends on Tuesday evening, on the occasion of his husband's birthday. It proved a most pleasant affair and the evening passed by most gaily. A very dainty luncheon was served by the hostess with the assistance of the Misses Beatrice MacKenzie and Alice Champion. The guests then presented Mr. McKenzie with a beautiful writing desk to which he responded in a fitting and grateful manner.

The merchants and citizens of Centreville observed Monday a holiday instead of Saturday the 24th. The day was spent by all according to their interpretations of a happy and pleasant holiday.

Some of the members of Centreville Lodge I.O.O.F. went to Fredericton on Sunday p.m. and took part in the Memorial service and march out held by the brothers of Brunswick Lodge of that place. The service conducted by Rev. M. H. Manuel was held in the Baptist church.

The local Lodge of Oddfellows have received an invitation from the Lodge at Fort Fairfield to attend the Oddfellow's 14th Memorial service and Camp Fire held in honor of Col. P. A. Hume and the recent arrivals from overseas.

Harry Margison of East Centreville who came on Thursday evening, was en-taining in his usual vein of service with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces and was twice wounded.

Miss Pearl Altery of the Domestic Science Staff, Woodstock, and a former teacher of the school here, came on for the week-end and is visiting friends.

Friends of Charlie Lunn were glad to see him return home and hearty last week after a long period of overseas service in the machine gun section. He and his brother, Lieut. Geo. Lunn, lately returned, served on the same front all through the scrap.

Mrs. W. R. Harold and Mrs. M. A. Burtt spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Burtt in Jacksonstown.

The students from Mount Allison Ladies' College have returned home again to enjoy a much needed rest. Among the number are Misses Grace Fare, Louise Wightman, Chayala Savage, Mary Miller, Miss Edith Lipsett went to Truro for a short visit before returning.

All Stores on this page
will be closed on Tuesday, June 3.
