

Local News and Personal Items

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal items they may know about. The editor must depend on the parties interested to supply items for this page. Don't hesitate to send personal concerns, however, and your family, we want them all. Don't blame the editor if what you expect to see is not here if you have not yourself taken the pains to see that the editor was informed of the item. Anything in the nature of advertising appearing in these columns must be paid for at the rate of 5 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Marriages or Deaths, For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc. Charged items will be 15 cents a line. Better send them with the full amount, counting six words as a line. No advt. less than 25¢ a week.

Chautauque next week.

Some beautiful weather this week. Most farmers have completed potato digging and harvesting.

R. L. Carnell of Lakeville, was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

Henry Post and son, Woodstock, were in town on business on Monday.

Factory yarn, Mac light grey and dark grey, at Carr's only $1.35 a pound.

If you neglect buying a season Chautauque ticket until after Tuesday you will regret it.

Born—On Oct. 7, to Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McKenzie, East Knowlesville, a son—Carroll Peter.

For sale—The concrete building near the station at a reasonable price. Apply to Mrs. Warren Rideout, Somerville.

We offer at a great bargain a gasoline lower hay press. It is in good working order. Hatfield & Co., Ltd.

Miss Florence Olsen has returned from Fredericton, having completed a course at the business college in that city.

A contingent of the Salvation Army from Woodstock gave a religious and musical entertainment here on Tuesday evening.

Bible Day in the U. B. Sunday School on Oct. 17 at 2.30. Every person of Baptist faith not attending some other school is cordially invited. Come.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Marich and child of Bristol, do not expect to leave for Europe until December 1. It was erroneously reported they were leaving on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold G. McFarland and children of Saskatchewan are guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McFarland, and Mrs. McFarland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bower of Victoria.

Chautauque next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The evening entertainments will open at 8 p.m. Prayer meetings on Wednesday will assemble at 7 o'clock and the entertainment will open at about 8.15.

The Methodist Choir will meet for practice on Friday evening of this week, at the home of Miss Marion Stevens. All members are earnestly urged to be present to rehearse special music for Thanksgiving service on Sunday evening next.

If you live to be 75 years old you will no doubt spend 25 of those years in bed. Is it not important then to sleep in comfort? Buy a mattress at Carr's. He has them from $10 up. We don't recommend low priced ones, though we can get them.

Mrs. Alice Miles of Lowell, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Willie Dickinson, left yesterday for South Bend, Ind., where she will reside with her husband. Mrs. Dickinson has also been entertaining her brother, Obed Hallett, his wife and son Crosby, of Conway, N. H. This is Mr. Hallett's first visit to the old home in 24 years.

Chautauque, Oct. 20-22.

Monday, Oct. 18, is Thanksgiving. Estey & Curtis Co. have potato barrels for sale.

I. A. J. Ward was in Woodstock on business on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boyd of Woodstock, motored to Hartland on Sunday.

Mare for sale or exchange. Weight 1300, seven years old, black. A bargain. T. B. Thistle.

The one case of small pox and the several cases of diphtheria in town are quite fully recovered.

W. F. MacMullin and Miss Sara MacMullin spent the week-end at Kilburn at the home of A. A. Trafton.

Anyone wishing to save money should visit A. W. Phillips' store, where one of the biggest sales is now on.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Page announce the engagement of their daughter, Laura Belamine, to Ralph M. Shaw of Millinocket, Maine.

Leigh Estey of Jacksonport brought the champion big potato to The Observer on Tuesday. It tipped the beam at a trifle more than 3½ lbs.

At the home of Mrs. Chas. Jones, Cloverdale, on Oct. 13, Frederic B. Wallace and Mary J. Jones were united in marriage by Rev. E. A. Tribes of Hartland.

The bacon Carr sells is made from young pigs, not old hogs. His hams are boneless. Why buy bone? You can't eat the bones. Sausages will be more plentiful now the weather is getting cooler.

William Curtis on Thursday was taken suddenly ill while at work in a potato field. He fell unconscious and remained so for some time. He has since become able to be around as usual.

Enoch Hallett and Mrs. Nellie Nevers were married Oct. 4, by Rev. L. A. Fenwick at the home of her brother, Ernest Seeley at Jacksonville. The couple left yesterday for their home in Clinton, Mass. Mr. Hallett has been visiting his brother Scott Hallett, and sister, Mrs. W. B. Dickinson.

G. F. Seely and associates have purchased Hartland Garage from L. H. Glass at a price exceeding $5000. The purchase includes the building and electric plant. It is Mr. Seely's intention to put up a concrete building in the spring. He will move his family here from Aroostook Jct. Mr. Glass will remain in Mr. Seely's employ.

On Monday Ivan Nixon of Somerville, driving the McLaughlin car owned by his father, G. B. Nixon, met another car coming at furious speed and hogging the road. The meeting place was at the bridge near C. E. Barnett's. Young Nixon attempting to clear the on-coming car struck the railing of the bridge, which gave way and the car and occupants went hurtling into the ravine. Miraculously the boys were not seriously hurt but the same cannot be said of the car.

Mrs. F. A. Alton is spending a few days in St. John.

R. G. Fletcher spent the week-end at his home at Devon.

I have a Jewel triple heater for sale at a bargain. T. B. Thistle. 18-2

Mrs. Harvey Goodwin is suffering severely from an attack of erysipelas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevens of Florenceville were visiting here recently.

Forney C. Barber has returned from Jordan Sanatorium greatly improved in health.

Work on the river bridge is going forward well, despite the draw-back of high water.

Your ballot will be all right if it bears the names of one or both of the Government candidates.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stevens of Houlton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens last week.

Lost—A chain off an auto truck between Hartland and Hale. Finder please leave at The Observer office. 17-3

Mrs. A. D. Kennedy and Mrs. F. A. Alton went to St. John on Monday to attend the annual convention of the U. B. W. M. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Cadworth of Greenfield, Mass., formerly Annie Robinson, sister of Mrs. J. S. Faulkner, Edmond and Archie Robinson, visited Hartland and Windsor last week.

Vivian Robinson of Windsor is spending a few days at Fort Fairfield.

Mrs. E. S. Spinney of South Knowlesville was in town on Thursday.

Mrs. Joseph Davis and daughter, Mrs. Smith, of Yarmouth, Me., have been visiting Mrs. Davis' sister, Mrs. Wm. J. Davis of Waterville, also Mrs. Rex L. York and friends in Hartland. Mrs. Davis lived in Waterville until 20 years ago then went to Yarmouth.

On Thursday while feeding a threshing machine a stone or piece of metal flew from the beater and struck William McAdam in the eye, causing the complete loss of its sight. Mr. McAdam was taken to Houlton where Dr. Mitchell removed the destroyed optic. He has the sympathy of the community in his painful and irremediable mishap.

The United Farmers of Carleton are certainly to be commended for having got wise to B. Frank Smith's little game in the late election. When he saw the storm coming, he threw his colleague W. S. Sutton overboard and decided to go in alone as an independent with the hope that he might slip in on personal votes. There were two Smiths running in Carleton and the electors wisely decided that the one without political sins was the best fitted to represent the county.—Mail.

The Church of England will hold their annual Harvest Thanksgiving services on Sunday, October 17. The morning service at 11; after which there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion. The celebrant will be the Rev. W. B. Morgan, B.D. Evening service at 7.30. The special preacher will be the Rev. W. B. Morgan, B.D., who is here on vacation. A hearty welcome will be given to all who love to worship God in the beauty of Holiness. Come and bring your friends! The collections for the day will be devoted to General Board of Religious Education and Church Maintenance Fund. There will also be a Children's Service at 2.30.

We have a splendid line of

SWEATERS

for Fall and Winter in Men's, Women's and Children's and in different Styles and Qualities

Millinery Opening

of

FALL AND WINTER HATS

will be held on

Friday and Saturday, SEPTEMBER 24--25

F. F. PLUMER

Groceries

Dry Goods

Furniture

INTERNATIONAL

BINDER TWINE

600 ft to the roll and the PRICE is NICE

C. R. DeWITT Everything Worth while in HARDWARE

Avoid Fire Loss

Insure in Strong Companies with

C. MURRAY McLEOD

HARTLAND, N.B.