The statistical committee's report was presented by Rev. John C. Berrie and adopted.

Rev. Geo. Steel submitted report of parsonage aid committee. Adopted.

Educational Work.

The educational committee reported through Dr. Inch. It recommended that Rev. John Burwash be secretary-treasurer; that the educational meetings beheld as early in the year as possible; that the superintendents of circuits be urged to hold meetings as early in the year as possible; and solicit subscriptions according to discipline; that the following be the deputation to visit the circuits: St. John district, Rev. John Read, C. H. Paisley, A. M., Prof. Burwash, H. A. McKeown, A. B.; Fredericton district, Rev. C. Stewart, D. D., T. J. Deinstadt and A. S. White, D. D., T. J. Deinstadt and A. S. White, Esq., M. son institutions, was presented by Rey. M.
R. Knight, A. M. The committee reported with the specific order of the work-being done at the institution as indicated by the examinations and closing exercises of this year. They were impressed with the high character of the students in attendance, as well as with the tact and exceptional qualification for their position and work exhibited by Dr. Inch, the scholarly president of the college, and Dr. Stewart, the respected dean of the theological faculty, and Messrs.
Dav's and Burden, the principlas respectively of the male and ladies academy.
In their opinion in no previous year had more thorough and successful work been done.

Children's Fund.

The children's fund report was presented by Rev. L. S. Johnson. After report had been given, on motion of lev. T.
Marshall, it was tabled until tressurer's report was given.

Rev. E. Paisley argued in favor of Bro.
Marshall, but adopted, and ordered to be printed in the minutes.

The report of the children's fund committee was again taken up and considered.

Hev. J. Estey moved that a change of basis be changed so that every man on a mission of semi-independent circuit shall receive $620.00, should any man lose seven children then he shall have his salary supplemented so that he shall visions of the discipline. Passed.

Dr. Inoh addressed the conference, giving a good account of the university work in all its branches. He regretted that the small amount at the disposal of the committee will enable the conference to grant very small sums to assist students and urged the brethren to use all means to increase the subscription. He spoke on behalf of the Rev. Mr. Burden concerning the work of the leadies' college, reporting that never in its history was it so successful.

Principal Davis, of the male academy, as aid the work of the year had been satisfactory and pleasant. He would be glad if all would press upon the people the fact that we have the male academy.

He considered the work as important as in the college and just as well done.

Dr. Stewart's interest and faithfulness was alluded to in feeling and appropriate terms.

Dr. Stewart's stated that the students had worked hard and sided him in all possible ways by faithful attention to duty in all particulars. His official duties had necessitated his absence at times which might have told to the disadvantage of the students had necessitated his absence at times which might have told to the disadvantage of the students had necessitated his absence at times which might have told to the disadvantage of the students had necessitated his absence at times which might have told to the disadvantage of the students had necessitated his absence at times which might have told to the disadvantage of the students had necessitated his absence at times which might have told to the disadvantage of the students had necessitated his absence at times which might have told to the disadvantage of the students had necessited his absence at times which might have told to the disadvantage of the students had necessited his absence at times which might have for several pleased for each to see this work successful, and was pleased to report that his opinion is still in favor of the conference using all efforts to advance the interests of the made academy.
