REMARKS ON THE MONTREAL MARKETS FOR THREE DAYS PRECEDING

FRIDAY EVENING, June 10, 1836.

ASHES.—Since our last report we have to note a reduction in the price of both Pots and Pearls: sales of Pots have been effected in quantity at 30s. and 30s. 6d., small lots have brought 30s. @ 31s. 6d.; Pearls have been offered freely at 42s. for shipping parcels. Although the market is decidedly lower, no extreme anxiety to realize has been manifested by holders.

FLOUR.—Notwithstanding the ample arrivals from Upper Canada, the market has been steady —sales of fine U. C. from the wharf at 22s. 3d., and from store at 22s. 6d. @ brl. For an indifferent mixed parcel 22s. has been taken.

GRAIN.—On Thursday, 1500 bushels good mixed U.C. Wheat were taken at 5s. 5d. @ 6s. There have been large arrivals of forage at Quebec, a considerable portion of which is destined for this market. At Quebec, sales of oats have been effected at 3s. 3d. @ 3s. 7d. according to quality—we have heard of no transactions here. Upper Canada Peas have been sold, at large, to the extent of 3000 minots, at 3s. 5d.

PROVISIONS.—Pork continues to recede—we note a sale of 100 brls. Prime at $16½, 90 days. In other articles no change; and the demand for all kinds of Salted Provisions has been languid.

COALS.—Have opened high, sales of Newcastle Grate, ex ship, having been made at 32s. @ 33s. 3d. @ chald.

WEST INDIA PRODUCE.—Sugar continues to be a favorite article; for fine bright 57s. 6d. @ cwt. has been realised for a lot by private sale.

EXCHANGE.—The Montreal Bank offered today to draw on London at 9 @ cent., previously to which Merchants' Bills had been current at 9 @ 9¼ prem.

RICHARD MARSH, June 9.

The scarcity of money continues greatly felt; there is more buoyancy in the produce market. Flour, which has been forced off prices as low as $5.50, is now in greater demand and has been sold at 60½.

WHEAT.—None arriving; price nominal 130 @ 135 cents.

BALTIMORE MARKET, JUNE 8.

HOWARD STREET FLOUR.—We quote the above price today at $6.62½ @ $6.75. City Mills Flour—Inspections 3650 brls.; 1400 Southern prime German Wheat was sold yesterday at $1.43.
