Fishing Fish. In the course of a lecture delivered before the Royal Institute, Loldon' Professor Owen noticed the peculiar provision in one species of fish for capturing their prey by means of an apparatus attached to their upper jaw, respending the tackle of angler. A projectin bone acts as the fishing rod, and from it there deepends a bright red substance, that serves the purpose of the bait. The fish, having its body buried in the sand, projects this apparatus, and the smaller fishes seize hold of the bait are instantly transferred into its open mouth.

MOST ASTONISHING CURE OF SCROFULOUS ULCERS-A CASE CERTIFIED BY THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

THE MAYOR OF BOSTON.

Copy of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Muyor of Boston, Lincolmshire.

To Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—Mrs. Sarah Dixon, of Liquorpond street, Boston, has this day deposed before me that for a considerable period she was severely efflicted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulears in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the first of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of money, she obtained no abstement of suffering, but gradually grew worse.

Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that was all used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules, as to dict, &c., she was perfectly cared, and now enjoys the best of health.

MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mrs. Elizabeth Yeates, of the Post Office, Aldwick Road, near Bognor, Sussex, dated January 12th, 1853.

To Professor Hollowar,
Sir.—I suffered for a considerable period from a fewere attack of Evpipelas, which at length settled in my leg, and resisted all medical treatment. My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to have recourse to your Obserment and Pills. I did so without delay, and am happy to say the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical care of my leg and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in this neighborhood similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.

Dear Sir.—I am happy to be able to certify to the efficiency of Mr. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and to the truth of what it is represented to accomplish. Having a little boy suffering greatly from teething, who could not rest, and at night by his cries would not permit any of the family to do so, I purchased a bettle of Soothing Syrup, in order to test the remedy,—and when given to the boy according to the directions, its effect upon him was like magic, he soon went to sleep, and all pain and nervousness disappeared. We have had no trouble with him since; and the little fellow will pass through with comfort, the excruciating process of teething, by the sele aid of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Every mother who regards the health and life of her children, should possess it.

This may certify, that for about four years I was seriously afflicted with a disease in the hip, which physicians termed Neurology*, or Sciatic Rheumatism, and resorted to various remedies without any permanent relief; have been under the care of a regular Physician for six months at a time. Last spring, had a very violent attack, which laid me up, when I made use of the Cramp and Pain Killer, prepared by Sessre. Curis & Perkins, of Bangor. It gave me immediate relief, and I do not hesitate to eay, that it is the best article I ever used. I cheerfully recommend it to all who may be afflicted with similar complaints.

A child in Congress-Street was cared by the Southing Syrup, of Infantile Dysentery or Diarrhosa after being given over by the attending Physician.

Mr. Blackman, of Eddington says, it has accertfalled to cure the Dysentery or Diarrhosa in children whenever used in the village. Lots of it is sold.

One parent informs me his child has suffered to an alarming extent, with Flatulence or Wind Cholic.

Lately they have used the Soothing Syrap, and it always effects a speedy cure.

FAMILY PHYSIC.

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THERE has long existed a public demand for ar effective purgative pill which could be relied on as sure and perfectly safe in its operation. This has been prepared to meet that demand, and an extensive trial of its virtues has conclusively shown with what success it accomplishes the purpose designed. It is easy to make a physical pill, but not easy to make the best of all piller—one which should have none of the objections, but all the advantages, of every other. This has been attempted here, and with what success we would respectfully submit to the public decision. It has been unfortunate for the patient hitherto that almost every purgative medicine is ascimenious and irritating to the bowels. This is not. Many of them produce so much griping pain and revulsion in the system as to more than counterbalance the good to be derived from them. These pille produce no irritation or pain, unless it arise from a previously existing obstruction or derangement in the bowels. Being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity; but it is better that any medicine should be taken judiciously. Minute directions for their use in the several diseases to which they are applicable are given on the box. Among the complaints which have been speedily cured by them, we may mention Liver Complaint, in its various forms of Jaundice, Indigestion, Languor and Loss of Apuentice, Listiesaness, Irritability, Billous Headache. Billious Fever, Fever and Ague, Pain in the Side and Loins; for, in truth, all these are but the consequence of diseased action in the liver. As an aperient, they afford prompt and sure relief in Costiveness, Piles, Colic, Dysentery, Humors, Scrofula and Searry, Colds with soreness of the body, Ulcers and impurity of the blond; in short, any and every case where a purgative is required.

They have also produced some singulariy successful cures in Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsy, Gravel, Expaiglesa, Palpitation of the Heart, Pains in the Back, Stomach, and Side. They should be freely than though no serious derangement exists; but un-necessary dosing should nover be carried too far, as every purgative medicine reduces the strength, when taken to excess. The thousand cases in which a physic is required cannot be enumerated hero, but they suggest themselves to the reason of overy body; and it is confidently believed this pill will answer a better purpose than any thing which has atherto been available to mankind. When their virtues are once known, the public will no longer doubt what remedy to employ when in need of a exthactio medicine.
